MURDERED BY THUGS

SHOT AT BY

HUTCHINSON IS DYING

Oakland Man Is Beaten Terribly by Robbers in City of San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 28—Raving mad fighting imaginary foes and shrieking wildly Fred Hutchinson of 1208 West street Oakland a traveling salesman for a Chicago leather house lies dying in a padded cell in the insane ward of the Central Emergency Hospital as the result of his encounter last night with two foo pads who left him with a window weight robbed him and left him lying unconscious on the street with a fracture at the base of his skull

SKULL FRACTURED

Hutchinson was found weltering in the blood that flowed from ugly wounds on his head by two patrolmen—Officers Purcell and Dougherty—in the early hours of this morning He was unconscious and the policemen had him taken to the Receiving Hospital as quickly as possible Treatment by the surgeon in charge brought him back to his senses long enough to tell his story After that he lapsed into unconsciousness again and the strain on his mind of recalling what had happened to him made him a raving maniac He became so violent that he had to be overpowered by the hospital attendants and laced into a strait jacket In his cell he is now possessed by the hallucination that enemies are attacking him and he makes frenzied efforts to combat their attacks The physicians at the hospital say that he cannot live

TELLS HIS STORY

When Hutchinson regained consciousness for a short time this morning he was able to describe to the hospital attaches and to the police who found him the experience which has affected him so terribly

He stated that he had taken Miss Coleman and two young lady acquaintances to the Orpheum last night and afterward escorted them to their home at Davisidero and McAllister streets Leaving them at their door about 1 o'clock this morning he walked down McAllister street toward Scott to wait for a car

He had been at the corner only a minute or so when he noticed two men approaching him Their actions were menacing so he started to run back to Davisidero street for protection They gave chase and overtook him and while one held his arms the other beat him over the head with a window weight Hutchinson struggled fiercely against his assailants but he was no match for their combined strength and found himself powerless to avoid a terrible onslaught That is all he remembered

After telling his story and before returning to the unconscious state that he has been in ever since Hutchinson asked how much money remained in his pockets and when told that there was only a little small change stated that he had been robbed of $18 the amount he carried when attacked

WINDOW-WEIGHT.

The weapon with which Fred Hutchinson was beaten almost to death—a window weight—is the same as that used by the unknown thugs who killed Adolph Pfitzner a month ago in his McAllister street shoe store It may also have been employed by the murderers of Friede the Market-street clothing merchant who was attacked in exactly the same way as Pfitzner while waiting on a customer at the back of his store The police think both murders were committed by the same men but have been baffled in their efforts to arrest them It may be that Fred Hutchinson is a victim of the same murderers and that if he ever recovers consciousness again he may furnish a clew to their identity

OLD MAN IS KILLED BY FALLING HOUSE

Francis T. Hall Meets Death While Repairing Home.

Francis T Hall a painter, over eighty years old and residing at 315 Fourteenth street was crushed to death at 9 o'clock this morning by the falling of walls at the home he was completing to shelter himself and his aged wife

RAISING HOUSE.

The house No 572 East Fourteenth street was a single story cottage and Hall's property He was raising the front room to put in a basement, and had the front end of the house resting on jacks and props about ten feet above the ground It was left in this condition over night by Hall and his one helper C P Stewart, an Oakland carpenter

IN DANGER

When the two men returned to work this morning Hall started to remove a pile of earth on which one of the props rested in order to dig a place for a permanent support

Stewart cautioned him but the aged worker went fearlessly ahead with the project Suddenly without warning the entire front of the house caved forward toward the street, crushing Hall beneath it

Passersby attracted to the scene by the roar and crash of the falling building rushed to the place and assisted Stewart in bracing the house up with timbers The victim was removed and placed on the lawn where he lay unconscious

Dr Wilcox was summoned but it was too late as Hall had passed away

The widow arrived on the scene a few minutes after the catastrophe She seemed unable to bear it for a time but soon rallied

WOMEN FURIOUS AT PROFESSOR

PROFESSOR HIRAM VAN KIRK.

When Turned Out of Church They Sing, "Throw Out The Life Line, Somebody's Sinking Today."

BERKELEY Sept 28—After five years' occupancy of their handsome church on Dana street, near Bancroft way in close proximity to the grounds of the University of California, the members of the congregation have learned for the first time that they cannot do as they please with their property They have just ascertained this and the shock that came with the breaking of the news was a sudden one—that the Berkeley Bible Seminary which is a Christian Church organization has almost absolutely full control of the church property on Dana street

WOMEN ORDERED TO CELLAR.

It was yesterday afternoon that the ladies of the church learned for the first time that the interests of the Berkeley Bible Seminary regarding the occupancy of the church must be primarily considered Assembling as a Ladies' Aid Society, the most prominent women of the church went to the house of worship late yesterday afternoon and attempted to hold a meeting They were met at the head of the stairs as they started to go into a room on the second floor of the building over the church auditorium by Professor Hiram Van Kirk, president of the Berkeley Bible Seminary, who told them that he was using the apartment for one of the classes of the seminary The ladies protested They declared that they wanted to hold a session in the room, as it was the only available place in the building, but they were told that if they wanted to convene in the church they would have to meet in the basement of the building

WOMEN ARE FURIOUS.

No sooner had Professor Van Kirk made this announcement than he was stormed by the ladies, who declared that they had as much right in the building as he had The next few minutes were perhaps the most uncomfortable that Professor Van Kirk has ever passed in his life

"SOMEBODY'S SINKING."

After they had exhausted all their arguments the ladies crowded around the piano and began to sing songs, such as "Throw Out the Life Line, Somebody's Sinking Today"

President Van Kirk declared that he could prove by documents of the church that the seminary was entitled to occupy the building at all times, except on Sundays or on Wednesday evenings when the religious services of the Christian church are in progress

CONGREGATION GIVES MONEY.

It cost $15,000 to erect the church building and $10 000 of this sum has already been paid by the members of the congregation The $5000 remaining to be paid on the building is owed to the Christian Church Extension Society. The land on which the church was erected was donated by the Berkeley Bible Seminary It is stipulated in the contract and deed now in possession of the church that, in view of the donation of the land, the seminary is to have joint occupancy of the church

O. G. NEWHALL'S CLOSE CALL

Robber Is Given Battle and Then Tries to Kill His Victim.

While on his way home about 10:15 o'clock last night, O. G. Newhall, proprietor of meat markets at 451 Eleventh street and 1516 Broadway, was held up on Twenty-eighth street, just west of Telegraph avenue, and the robber took a shot at Newhall, but his victim was not injured, the bullet going through the shoulder portion of his coat The hold-up man is described as being well dressed, with a cap drawn down over his eyes, and wearing an overcoat.

Newhall was passing the trees just west of Telegraph avenue when a man stepped out of a shadow and flourished a revolver in his face, with the command for him to hold up his hands Instead of obeying the order, Newhall made a lunge at the hold-up man who, seeing the action of his intended victim, pulled the trigger of his revolver, but the bullet went wild.

The robber then turned and ran away with Newhall close to his heels. The attempted hold-up was reported to the police this morning, and a description of the man furnished.

MARINES LAND IN CUBA

Liberal Leaders May Be Taken to Moat and Shot by Soldiers.

HAVANA, Sept 28—With the Cuban Congress meeting within a few hours to consider the resignation of President Palma, even the most experienced politicians were unable to predict what action would be taken or whether even a quorum would be secured. It was practically certain that Palma would remain steadfast in his determination to retire, despite the efforts of the Moderates to induce him to reconsider his plan to quit office His effects at the palace were ready for removal. He and his family were reported about to depart for Matanzas.

LIBERALS WILL MEET.

The Liberals prepared to meet this morning to determine finally whether to participate in the session of Congress. Without them a quorum would be impossible. There seemed little doubt that Congress, if it met at all, would fail in the desperate attempt to devise any means to defer American intervention. This would be followed possibly this afternoon by a proclamation by Secretary Taft of a government, or intervention and landing of United States forces from the warships. The first landing party will consist of a body of marines under Colonel Burnett. Another force will land later. The marines probably will make their headquarters at the Villanueva railroad station

MAY BE SHOT.

Senator Zayas leader of the Liberal party, was reported this morning to have notified Secretary Taft that the Cuban government had issued orders to have Zayas, J G Gomez, J H. Gomez Dimitri Castillo and O G Ve shot in the moat of Principe castle

It is not believed that the government will dare to resort to such extremes

CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

HAVANA, Sept. 28—Prominent Moderates said today that they will be willing to accept anybody, even Pino Guerrero, as candidate for president, rather than incur intervention Others, including Vice-President Mendez Capote, said they believed the Americans were determined on intervention in any case, whether Palma's resignation is accepted or otherwise

NO MOVE MADE.

HAVANA, Sept. 28—Quartermaster Captain Roosevelt of the marines arrived he has been ordered to stand by for landing from 2 o'clock this morning onward but not to move unless ordered to do so

LANDING TENTS.

CRIPPLES FORM UNION; ARE MOSTLY FLAGMEN

CHICAGO, Sept 28—The only union of cripples in the world has been organized in this city The union is composed exclusively of the one-armed and one-legged men who tend switches and wave flags at railroad crossings.

In the city there are about one thousand two hundred cripples who earn a living by acting as switch tenders and flagmen They complain that advantage is taken of them because of their physical defects They work from twelve to sixteen hours a day and seven days in the week at wages ranging from $40 to $50 a month Most of them are old railroad men who have lost a leg or an arm in an accident and they are regarded as pensioners by the railroad companies It is the long hours of watching every day in the week of which they complain more than the wages although they hope to improve conditions in both directions through a union

Somewhere in this vicinity, Mrs. Meyers, an aged inmate of the King's Daughters' Home, is wandering without friends or money. The police have been asked to find the woman, who has strayed away from her home. It is stated that Mrs. Meyers is somewhat feeble-minded, owing to her old age, the woman is over sixty years of age, and of German descent. At the time she left the home she was attired in black.

TROUBLE MAKER GIVEN CHANCE

While under the influence of liquor, Thomas Campbell went to his home and proceeded to make trouble. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Post, had him arrested for disturbing the peace, and this morning he appeared before Police Judge Smith. Mrs. Post and Campbell's wife merely desired to have protection, claiming that Campbell became insane and uncontrolable when intoxicated. Judge Smith allowed the prisoner to go, after admonishing him to keep the peace and treat his family well.

TAFT IS PRAISED IN HAVANA

HAVANA, Sep 28—11:30 a. m.—Sentiment expressed here today at public resorts was almost unanimously in favor of intervention. The few who were opposed to it easily resigned themselves to what they considered to be inevitable. The interest of the masses in the outcome is infinitely less intense than would be imagined. The representatives of commercial interests here praise the fairness of Secretary Taft and also his determination to press the business of procuring peace to a prompt conclusion.

BANDITS HEAD FOR TEXAS

Mexican Troops Hot on Trail of Outlaws Who Captured Town.

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 28.—A special to the Herald from Eagle Pass this afternoon says: Colonel Aguilas, in command of the Mexican troops, telephoned early today from Jiminez that he was in pursuit of the bandits who captured that town night before last and that they were headed for Texas. One hundred and twenty men from Saltillo, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Antonio Rojo, reached Eagle Pass last night after midnight from Saltillo and the party left this morning for Jiminez. Two hundred cavalry from Monterey are expected tonight at the border. All is quiet in Ciudad Porfirio Diaz.

MANY LIVES LOST; DAMAGE IS $3,000,000

MOBILE, Sept. 28.—Large numbers of lives were lost in this city and property damage amounts to $3,000,000. Miles of rails washed away near West Pascagoula, Miss. Communication is slowly being restored.

CUBAN FLAG TO FLY ON PUBLIC BUILDINGS

HAVANA, Sept. 28—It is intended that the provisional government shall be essentialy Cuban and that the Cuban flag shall remain over public buildings, though the American flag has flown wherever troops have been stationed.

HIS BULLDOG BITES WITH GOLD TEETH

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 28.—Scranton now boasts of another gold-toothed dog. It is a bull pup, the property of Dr. H S Saunders, a dentist, and it has six gold teeth in its lower jaw.

Dr. Fred S. Birchard, formerly of this city, but now of Montrose, has a dog with a gold tooth, and this dog became famous the country over. It is possible that the fame achieved by Dr Birchard's animal led Dr Saunders to go his brother-practitioner several better and place six gold teeth in the jaws of the bulldog. At all events, that is what he did.

"Doc," that is the beast's name was stretched out on his back, and while some one held him his owner used the forceps, pulling out the roots of several decayed teeth. The rest was easy. It was bridge-work, and the animal stood it being inserted without a whine.

NOTED CROOK CAUGHT IN HIS OWN FIRE TRAP

TROY, Sept. 28.—Peter Curley, of this city, noted gambler bank robber and all-round criminal, died as the result of being frightfully burned in a saloon fire in Northern Boulevard, Albany. Having gone into the place for the purpose of setting it afire, according to the police, he was caught in his own fire trap, the fuse which he used being so short that an explosion took place before he could make his escape.

When the firemen arrived Curley was unconscious on the floor, severely burned about the head and shoulders. They found their way into the place and reached him after a hard struggle with the flames.

Curley was sixty-seven years of age, and first came into prominence by his participation in the robbery of the Watereford (Saratoga county) bank in 1873. He and his accomplices got $200,000 in this haul. Several times he has been accused of being a professional firebug but his accusers were never able to prove the charge.

building. It is also agreed that the seminary may use the building when religious services are not in progress.

CHURCH MAY WITHDRAW.

According to Rev. Robert Perry Shepherd, the pastor of the church, it is highly probable that the members of the congregation may ask the seminary to return the money which was placed in the building in order that the church may build elsewhere.

"It is unfortunate that any misunderstanding regarding the occupancy of the church should have arisen," said Rev. Shepherd. "It will probably be the best thing for the members of the congregation to apply to the seminary to return the money that they have invested that they may erect a building that will be entirely their own. There are many wealthy members in the congregation, and I think that rather than have any disagreement they will erect a new church that will be entirely their own and which they can use at any time they wish. The church building is well adapted for seminary classwork while it might have been designed must better for church purposes."

VAN KIRK TALKS.

"When the ladies of the aid society of the church applied to me for the use of the room on the second floor I told them that it was being held for seminary classwork," said President Van Kirk. "The Bible Seminary and the Christian church hold a joint ownership in the building, and it expressly stipulated in the contract which was given when the seminary decded the property for the building that the seminary may use the building as it sees fit when services of a religious nature are not being held. At first the church wanted a twenty-year lease on the property, but they afterwards decided to take the land with the proviso that the seminary might have the use of the building for classroom purposes.

MANY NEW MEMBERS.

"Many new members have joined the church since the contract went into effect and they cannot see that they may not use the church building as they please, to the utter disregard of the interests of the seminary. I think that all the older members understand the equity that the seminary holds in the building."

WOMEN WORK HARD.

The members of the ladies' aid society have worked hard to raise money to pay off the indebtedness on the building. By holding sales and by giving lunches to business men the ladies of the church have raised a considerable sum each month, which has always been turned into the church treasury. A short time ago the women turned in $500 in a lump sum and they understood that it was to be used to furnish the room on the second floor, which the seminary is now using for class purposes.

MUST MEET AT HOMES.

Now the ladies' aid society will have to either hold their meetings in the basement of the church or at the homes of the members.

It is anticipated that there will be merry times in the church before the differences with the seminary are fully adjusted.

HAVANA, Sept. 28, 3:24 p. m.—The joint session of the Cuban Congress, called to consider the resignation of President Palma, assembled at 3:15 p. m. in the house of representatives. THIEVES GET BICYCLE AND GARDEN HOSE

A thief stole fifty feet of garden hose from the front yard of J. E. Thompson of 3819 Grove street yesterday afternoon. The police have been notified of the theft and have been asked to capture the daring thief.

He also reports that the rebels are collecting arms and horses. Bands are reported around Baracoa, indicating that the eastern province is more rebellious than hitherto. DESERTER FROM ARMY STOLE FROM CAPTAIN

SYRACUSE, Sept. 27.—Roy G. Merrick, agen nineteen years, a deserter from the Twenty-third infantry at Madison Barracks, who enlisted in New York, was taken to Sackett's harbor today in shackles by a detail from the regiment.

Merrick, it is alleged, stole Capt. Harold Hammond's wife's jewels, valued at $300, and came to Syracuse to see a young woman he met at the State fair. He was detained at Watertown, and got away from the police by a strategem.

Arrested here he denied his identity before the girl, the police and Capt. Hammond, but finally gave in, brought out the jewels from a secret pocket in his underwear, and told the police where he had pawned the rings.

ONE SHAVE DELAYS A LINER FOR 10 MINUTES

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A little shave delayed a big ship at this port.

When the Friedrich der Grosse was ready to sail, a woman, so excited that she stuttered in her speech, rushed to the deck and screamed:

"O-o-o-h! Stop the ship! Please stop the ship!"

The gangplank was being pulled in. The captain ran up and asked:

"Why stop the ship?"

"My husband is ashore. He left to get a shave."

The captain looked fierce, chewed his moustache and strode away. Ten minutes later a pudgy little man, whose face shone with the polish that comes of rubbing with magnesia powder, waddled up the gangplank, smiling blissfully. Then the pudgy little man—with his shave—was swung out to midstream.

HOLLYHOCKS TELL OF HERMIT'S OLD LOVE

WINSTED, Conn., Sept. 28—William Woodruff, aged seventy-five, a hermit who has lived since the civil war in Colebrook, following his annual custom in presenting the people who drive past his hut on Woodruff Hill, hollyhock, the favorite fower of the sweetheart who jilted him in the sixties. Since becoming a recluse Woodruff has raised only hollyhocks, which now cover the ground around his hovel.

THIS TEACHER USED HER RULER FREELY

WINSTED, Conn., Sept. 28—Complaint has been lodged with the school authorities of the place against a new teacher, Miss Eliza Reed, of Badford, O., who, it is said, makes pupils who put their lead pencils in their mouths stand on tip toes beside the blackboard and hold their hands up to a certain mark. If their fingers fall below the mark she cracks them with a ruler, it is asserted, and has already broken a dozen rulers. Several angry parents have taken their children from the school, which opened last Tuesday.

COFFEE WAS IT.

People Slowly Learn the Facts.

"All my life I have been such a slave to coffee that the very aroma of it was enough to set my nerves quivering.

"I kept gradually losing my health, but I used to say 'nonsense' it don't hurt me. Slowly I was forced to admit the truth and the final result was that my whole nervous force was shattered.

"My heart became weak and uncertain in its action and that frightened me. Finally my physician told me, about a year ago, that I must stop drinking coffee or I could never expect to be well again.

"I was in despair for the very thought of the medicines I had tried so many times nauseated me. Of course I thought of Postum, but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee. Finally I concluded that I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions, and what a delicious, norishing, rich drink it was. Do you know I found it very easy to shift from the coffee to Postum and not mind the change at all. Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew sound and steady, I slept well and felt strong and well balanced all the time. Now I am completely cured, with the old nervousness and sickness all gone. In every way I am well once more." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have.

MEETS TAFT IN PRIVATE.

HAVANA, Sept. 28, 11:10 a. m.—Senator Zayas, leader of the Liberal party, was received by Secretary Taft in private this morning and Senor Montalva, acting secretary of the interior, who immediately followed Zayas, was received by Assistant Secretary of State Bacon in another room. When Zayas emerged from his conference with the secretary he said there was hope for success of his plan to have Senator Sanguilly (Independent) elected to succeed President Palma and that he would return to the legation soon.

Senor Montalva, who left later, refused to talk for publication.

The Liberals are trying to persuade the Moderates to accept either Senator Sanguilly, General Menocal, General Agramonte or some other independent or independent Liberal. The Moderates thus far are unwilling to fully commit themselves.

DID PATENT SYRUP CAUSE BABE'S DEATH?

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Sept. 28.—Because the death certificate did not give the contributory cause of death, Health Registrar Charles E. White stopped the interment of the baby son of Samuel Zearfoss of 730 Haws avenue.

The tiny casket was about to be lowered into the grave in Riverside Cemetery, when the cemetery superintendent, William Todd, was notified by Registrar White to call a halt. The grief-stricken mother was summoned to the telephone and was asked if there was not some cause for the convulsions, which were given on the doctor's certificate as the cause of death.

Tearfully Mrs. Zearfoss told how she had given her daughter a dose of patent soothing syrup for colic. Soon after the child went into convulsions and a physician was summoned, but was unable to prescribe relief.

Coroner King, who had been notified by the registrar, permitted the interment with the understanding that the matter be sifted to the bottom. He now has his physician, Dr. A. H. Hess, making a chemical anaylsis of the patent medicine, and if it is found to be detrimental to health, it will be reported to the State health authorities.

NEW PENSION ORDER IS OUT

Officers and Men May Not Aid in Soliciting Claims Against the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A general order just promulgated by the war department positively prohibits the soliciting of pension or other claims against the United States on military reservations or at military posts, camps, or stations and officers are directed to take measures effectually to prevent such solicitations. Officers and enlisted men who give information with a view to aiding persons who solicit such claims will lay themselves liable to trial by court-martial In this connection the army regulations have been amended so as to provide as follows:

"Information concerning sick and wounded officers and enlisted men be secretly conveyed to allay the anxiety of friends. The fact of death may be communicated to relatives but not circumstances connected therewith such as could be made use of in prosecuting claims against the government. If any person in the military service has knowledge of facts pertaining to the service of an individual who is an applicant for a pension he may, upon request, if not pecuniarily interested, furnish a certificate or affidavit setting forth his knowledge, but such certificate or affidavit will be furnished only to the military secretary of the army to be forwarded to the proper officer of the interior department."

Sheriff Barnet this morning appointed George G. Bolsson assistant jailer to act while the new jail is in course of construction. Bolsson was formerly a member of the legislature from this county.

THEY STORM ENEMY'S CAMP

Gillett and Knowland Warmly Received in Vallejo, Bell's Birthplace.

VALLEJO, Sept. 28.—James N. Gillett, Republican nominee for Governor, and Congressman Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda, were the central figures last evening of the greatest demonstration ever made in this county in forty years of vivid political campaigns. Farragut theater, where the meeting was held, was packed to overflowing, and at the corner of Georgia and Sacramento street Gillett spoke to an overflow meeting of 500 people.

Vallejo, as the birthplace of Theodore Bell, has been looked upon as a stronghold of the Democratic nominee, but last evening's gathering was one that pleased Gillett and Knowland and the county central committee highly. In fact, Gillett stated after the meeting that in enthusiasm it was the banner meeting of the present campaign. The Humboldt congressman who labored shoulder to shoulder for the Mare Island navy yard in the halls of Congress, was received with wildest acclaim everywhere that he went.

There was an excursion from northern Solano county, and with electrical illuminations, red fire and fireworks, and plenty of music, the demonstration was a highly successful one.

Gillett spoke along the lines that he has during the present campaign, and featured his stand upon matters of interest to labor. He made a hit when he mentioned the fact that the reason that he did not vote upon the anti-injunction bill was that he was absent from Congress, suffering an attack or rheumatism, and that he was paired. For this he is being roundly abused by Bell and Langdon. He informed the voters that William R. Hearst, who was also absent from the voting on the measure, was also paired, as was the Republican nominee, but that he had yet to hear of Hearst being abused for this incident.

Congressman Knowland was given a reception that equaled the fervor shown Bell last Saturday evening, which up to that time had surpassed anything of its kind in local political history. He said:

"It is more than an ordinary pleasure for me to be in Vallejo tonight. Two years ago in this city I was selected, by the duly-accredited representatives of my party from the Third district, as the Republican nominee for Congress At that time I declared that I had learned through my past experience in public life that it was dangerous and ill advised for a candidate to make extravagant promises for the future, further than to pledge himself to keep faith with the people and to exert every energy in an honest endeavor to serve the interests of every locality he might be called upon to represent. I hope I have at least fulfilled that pledge.

"I contend that a public official deserves no particular credit for performing his plain duty, and this is all I have attempted. I do feel, however, that I would be leaving unsaid that which should be taken account of upon this occasion, if I failed to recall the fact that the Mare island navy yard never had a more true and stanch friend than Congressman J. N. Gillett. He did not represent this district and was not therefore called upon to raise his voice or exert his influence on behalf of a cause in which you, the people of Vallejo, were and are so vitally interested. But this mattered not to Congressman Gillett. A mere knowledge that an attempt was being made to perpetrate an injustice upon a locality was a sufficient incentive to arouse in him every figuring quality in his make-up, and this regardless of the fact, which he too well knew, that such a fight meant the arousing of antagonism in influential and powerful quarters. No such knowledge ever deterred James Gillett throughout his whole public career from enlisting his services in a cause on the side of which right and justice prevailed. This is a kind of man who heads our State ticket as he has been revealed to me through my association with him in the legislature of this State and in the Congress of the United States.

"In this campaign our opponents object to a discussion of national issues. They proclaim that local issues only are involved and that we have no right to invoke the name of Roosevelt or mention other illustrious party leaders. They will be consistent in this, for throughout the campaign the only mention Democratic speakers will make of their party leaders will be to allude to certain former disciples of Democracy whom they are now attempting to read out of the party, although, in times past, these very men have furnished much-needed sinews of war and preached Democratic doctrine throughout the land.

"A most amusing situation has developed in this State. The Democratic party has repudiated an erstwhile party leader. Throughout the length and breadth of this commonwealth party orators are abusing W. R. Hearst and boasting of how, figuratively speaking, the Sacramento gathering, amid the clang of bells, ejected him and his from the convention hall. Look on that scene and then upon this: Across the continent, in the great imperial State of New York, the pure and reformed Democracy, under the leadership of that man of the plain people, Mr. Murphy of Tammany Hall—Tammany, the great reform and anti-boss organization—proclaims Hearst as the Democratic Moses, while Bryan pales into insignificance.

"Let the Republicans of this State constantly bear in mind that had President Roosevelt, occupying, as he does, the most exalted station in this or any other republic, elected as the nominee of the Republican party, failed to meet and solve the great questions which have confronted the American people during his administration, you will hear national issues discussed from every Democratic stump."

Judge Albert G. Burnett of Santa Rosa, nominee for the Appellate bench for the Third district, was also introduced and made a short address and was well received. Following the meeting Gillett and Knowland held an informal reception in the parlors of the Bernard Hotel.

FATE OF CITY IS IN DOUBT

Outside World Has No Word From Mobile for Thirty-Six Hours.

ST LOUIS Sept 28—No communication has been received by St Louis from Mobile Ala the last 36 hours and the extent of the storm there cannot be conjectured The telegraph companies have lost all their wires into Mobile and the Mobile & Ohio railroad after exhausting every effort to secure communication with Mobile since Wednesday midnight is now relying upon the arrival of a train at 2 30 this afternoon to bring tidings from the supposedly inundated city E C Randell chief clerk to the general manager of the Mobile & Ohio railroad said this morning

Wednesday at midnight communication was ended suddenly At that time it was reported a heavy rainstorm accompanied by a strong wind was driving the water of the bay into Mobile Communication thereupon ended and we have heard nothing since

Yesterday until 2 p m we heard from Macon Miss about 150 miles north of Mobile At that time the storm was beginning to reach Macon and a deluge was pouring The wires worked badly and finally communication was lost This morning we are communication as far south as Jackson Tenn about 150 miles north of Macon and the storm is raging there We have heard nothing from any point south of Jackson A train was due to arrive here at 2 30 this afternoon from Mobile It should have left there at 10 o'clock yesterday morning but the probabilities are that it started from a point this side of Mobile

We are anticipating news from this train regarding the general storm conditions in the south

NO WORD IN LOUISVILLE

LATEST NEWS OF BIG STORM

Great Damage Has Been Done to the Cotton Crop.

NEW ORLEANS Sept 28—The first news from the gulf coast towns in Mississippi which had not been heard from in over thirty six hours, was received today and indicated that there was probably no loss of life there Property damage was not mentioned The message was brought by a Louisville & Nashville railroad official from Bay St Louis Miss who crossed the washout at Lake Catherine this morning He said that reports in Bay St Louis were that eastward toward Mobile the railroad tracks are probably little damaged as far as Scranton which is near the Alabama State line No word to indicate anything like a catastrophe has been received from this particular section of the coast It was reported however that at Scranton the storm had done considerable damage to the railroad tracks and that nothing was known of the situation east of that point With the prospect that 300 men now at work on the Lake Catherine washout would soon have the tracks repaired, Louisville & Nashville officials decided to attempt starting a train for Mobile tonight

DEFINITE NEWS

The first definite news from the Mississipp delta was received today It showed that the delta land had been flooded that hundreds of fishermen had been driven from their homes into lugers but that despite the wrecking of some of these boats loss of life was probably very small Property damage along the lower river however, was widespread

Reports from the northeast, in Mississippi like those from the east and south state that the loss of life has been small Reports from Mississippi points, however were very scarce despite the fact that several railroad lines and many telegraph wires run from here into that State and this fact was taken to indicate that the storm covered a wide area in its northward course yesterday

DAMAGE BY STORM.

Great damage to the cotton crop was reported in dispatches to the cotton exchange Baton Rouge La reported about about twenty per cent damage Cullman Miss reported winds which flattened the plants down in the mud and Natchez Miss reported that there and immediately across the river in Louisiana the damage was probably twenty five per cent No damage to sugar cane has yet been reported

The excursion steamer Camelia on Lake Pontchartrain about whose safety fears were expressed today safely landed the forty passengers which the hurricane prevented from coming ashore here Wednesday night

HOPE THEY WILL AVOID WAR

United States Not Anxious to Get Into a Mix-Up.

WASHINGTON Sept 28—Peaceful intervention by the United States is believed by the Acting Secretary and many other officials at the War department to be the outcome of the Cuban trouble Intervention is regarded today by these officials as almost inevitable but in spite of the unfavorable news from Havana they cling to the idea that the sending of large bodies of troops to Cuba will not be necessary and feel that Secretary Taft will establish a temporary government and restore peace in Cuba without the assistance of the American navy

It is generally believed in Washington that the Secretary of War will find the marines and blue jackets now in Cuba and preparing to go there capable of guarding Havana and neighboring cities, pending the holding of a new election and the placing of the Cuban government on a satisfactory basis Keeping in touch with their ships by rail the marines can do guard duty very satisfactorily at points where the insurgent leaders may threaten the property and lives of foreigners

NOT MUCH ALARM

The army always smacks of a foreign invasion but marines and blue jackets do not cause much alarm Consequently it is believed that Secretary Taft who is pre eminent as a diplomatist will not call for troops until all hope of handling the situation with the navy is lost

In the opinion of some army officers the interior of Cuba will become hostile shortly after intervention if conditions will arise which nothing less than a powerful army can meet but even the most pessimistic officers do not believe that the United States will be carried into the muddle for several weeks Preparations for the movement of troops at short notice have not been abated in the least and nothing is lacking but transportation for the immediate sending of troops to the unhappy republic

BURGLAR ALARM TRAPS LOOTERS

NEW YORK Sept 28—For the second time in two months the residence of Mrs Sarah C Wolfe at 101 Fifth avenue was entered yesterday by boys bent on plunder As in the former instance the boys set off the burglar alarm and Special Policemen Hanan and Lang responded They were fumbling at the front door when four boys climbed through the basement window and ran down Sixteenth street The officers gave chase and caught two of them

The prisoners gave their names as Joseph Maneseleco thirteen of 35 Carmine street and Louis Elrand fourteen of 16 Carmine street

At the coroner's jury, in the case of the old man who was found dead at Stege Tuesday afternoon it developed that the old man's name was not Peters, but John Vancouver The old fellow lived the life of a hermit He had been in ill health and the coroner's jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from natural causes

STORK BRINGS JOY TO FINANCIER OF 70

PHILADELPHIA Sept 28—After reaching the ripe old age of three-score and ten Frederick McOwen treasurer of the Berwind White Coal Company and a director of many local corporations, must learn baby talk His beautiful young wife has presented him with a beautiful blue eyed girl with husky lungs and high soprano voice

The old gentleman is as tickled as a baby with a new toy He tiptoes around the house with an air of sublime bliss on his countenance and warns the servants that they must be quiet for fear of wakening the baby The coachman is stationed in front of the house to chase away barking dogs and discordant organ-grinders and the only sound that breaks upon the stillness of the household is the tinkling of the telephone bell and the voice of Mr McOwen

Yes yes it's a girl mother doing fine baby a beauty, thanks thanks old man Yes it's the first but then, you know we've only been married two years so you can't expect any more."

White Bread Starves Many People.

A piece of bread that is dry, white and very light in weight seems to the thoughful person like so much foam or other useless and non-nourishing product

If one rolls a piece of moist, light bread or the interior of a biscuit between the fingers, a ball of dough is solidity that makes one question how the gastric juices of the stomach can dissolve such a wad

It is small wonder that such food creates havoc in the way of fermentation gas, and consequent disorder

Many persons will find great help by leaving off the ordinary bread entirely and using in its place Grape-Nuts, in which the starchy and nitrogenous substances have been thoroughly and perfectly cooked at the factory before being sent out.

There is no possibility of this food assuming the form of wads of dough. On the contrary, it is already predigested, the starch of the grain has been changed into sugar in the process of manufacture and passes quickly and directly into circulation

Grape-Nuts furnish the elements needed by the system to rebuild, particularly the soft gray matter in the brain and throughout the nerve centers in the body This statement will be verified by its use. It is delicious enough to recommend itself upon trial. Made in the pure food factories of Postum Co., at Battle Creek, Mich.

Gained Ten Pounds In Two Weeks

MR. J. B. COOPER.

Mr. J. B. Cooper of Scottsville, Ark., who wasted away from 180 pounds to 150 pounds in a few months, praises Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for restoring his health.

It required only two bottles to effect a cure and increase his weight 10 pounds, according to his own statement, written June 6, 1906, which follows:

"During my seventeen years as a salesman of general merchandise I have lost about six months' time only until recently, when I contracted a severe attack of bronchitis which made me feel as though I had consumption.

"I had been bothered with a slight cough for eight or nine months. I lost in weight, from 180 to 150 pounds. My doctor recommended Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the best cure for consumption, so I decided to try it, and after using two bottles sweetened with rock candy, I gained ten pounds in two weeks.

"It certainly does all the doctor told me it would do, and is the most effective tonic and stimulant I have ever taken The doctor had me order some of it for his patients, so you can see what he thinks of it."

Respectfully yours,
J. B. COOPER.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

NEW FOOTBALL RULES IN EAST MAY BE AMENDED

NEW YORK, Sept 28—Hhe central board of officials acting under the inter-collegiate football rules committee, has arranged a meeting for tonight at the Murray Hill Hotel Invitations have been extended to all the members of the rules committee to attend, to caches and prominent players in various institutions, to the 200 men who have already been authorized to officiate in games, and to others whose presence might aid in the furtherance of the objects of the central board to secure a uniform interpretation of the new code

There have been a great number of points of difference in the interpretation of the new rules to arise since the careful and painstaking study of the new rules began and all these are to be brought up and studied and decided,

It is stated that the criticism of the new rules that has come to the committee, while divided has been generally favorable and there has been no suggestion to reach them urging the necessity of further wholesale revision

NORFOLK, Va., Sept 28—From Wilmington N C, to Norfolk, about 300 miles, on the rear truck of an Atlantic Coast Line passenger coach is the novel ride of a 'Sir Thomas cat.

When the Coast Line passenger train pulled out of Wilmington last Saturday morning Conductor Edgar Hart noticed on the truck of one of the coaches a big cat

Finally in the evening the train pulled into Pinner's Point and one of the first to alight was the cat

The Right Sort of a Judge.

Judge E. C. Hart, Republican nominee for Associate Justice of the Third District Court of Appeals, has earned the reputation of being one of the best trial judges on the Superior Bench of California. He has been twice elected Superior Judge in Sacramento county, and prior to going on the bench was State Senator and District Attorney. He was counted among the ablest members of the Sacramento bar. One of his brothers, A. L. Hart, served a term as Attorney-General of the State.

Judge Hart ought to be elected by a very large majority, for on the bench he has proved himself to possess precisely the qualities most necessary in a judge. He is fearless in the discharge of his duties, and his knowledge of the law is profound. His rare judgment of men has been of great service to the people of Sacramento, for in criminal trials Judge Hart has proved that he knows just when to be severe and when to be merciful. His stiff sentences to the incorrigible criminal class are proverbial; they have had the effect of making professional crooks give Sacramento a wide berth.

Judge Hart has the distinction of being the only man to break the slate at Santa Cruz. He gained the admiration of the whole State by the way he stood up for his convictions against a pressure that proved too much for other judicial candidates. He was threatened with defeat for the nomination if he did not program.

"There are worse things than defeat," replied he, "and if I am compelled to choose between defeat and dishonor, I shall welcome defeat."

But men love a manly man; they respect courage and loyalty. Hence Judge Hart was not defeated as a punishment for being loyal to his friends and his word. Moreover, he has gained in popular appreciation throughout the State. Judge Hart's talents and attainments as a jurist are equal to his sterling character. He not only knows the law, but is impressed with its spirit. Equity is the last thing that crept into the law, but it is the vital principle of the law today. The last part of himself that man found, but the soul now governs the morals, conduct, religion, education and social organizations of mankind. Judge Hart is a jurist who recognizes the fact that equity is the governing principle of the science of jurisprudence; hence he is an ideal judge, entirely worthy of the confidence and esteem in which he is held.

The Call must not snatch the laurels from the brow of any Alamedan. It was not George Knight but E. K. Taylor of Alameda that soared into fame by asking in a State convention, "Oh, consistency, where is thy jewelry?"

The inhabitants of Brownsville, Texas, are to be spared in future the presence of colored troops at Fort Brown. The post has been abandoned and will be dismantled. Still the Texans are not happy. They want a garrison at Fort Brown, which is really of no military importance, but desire only white troops to be quartered there. They are rather too hard to please, in the opinion of the War Department.

Our Unpleasant Mission in Cuba.

The United States government is evidently in for an unpleasant and protracted experience in Cuba. The intractability of the contending factions has compelled forcible intervention, and by resigning President Palma has made it necessary for Secretary Taft to take official charge of the island. Each side prefers that the United States should take control to letting the other share in the government. President Roosevelt desired merely to restore order and hold up the hands of the existing Cuban government, but to insure peace it was necessary that some wrongs should be righted and concessions made to the insurgent party. But Palma would consent to no concessions, and insisted upon resigning, leaving the infant republic without a de facto government. Taft must therefore take hold and govern for awhile.

Palma's party had retained power by gross frauds in the late election, as Secretary Taft speedily ascertained, but there is no provision in Cuban law for a new election to correct the usurpation. Although the rottenness of the elections was indisputable, Palma declared it was beneath his dignity to depart from the technical letter of the law to right wrong and restore peace to his distracted country. Thus he has forced upon the United States the extremity of taking charge of the administration till another election can be held and a stable government of their own given the Cubans. How long the provisional government will have to be maintained is conjectural at present, but it will certainly not be longer than the exigencies demand.

The rural guards and the subordinate officials have signified their obedience to the authority our government proposes to temporarily exercise. This is fortunate, for a general revolt against our authority would be deplorable from every point of view. A war to compel obedience to American authority would not only entail bloodshed and destruction of property, but would expose the United States to grievous misunderstanding abroad. We should be immediately charged with waging a war of subjection, having annexation for its object. Color would be given the charge by the foolish annexation talk now being printed in some of the American newspapers.

There is undoubtedly a considerable sentiment in Cuba as well as the United States in favor of annexation, but now is the worst possible time for advocating such a project. Our honorable name among the nations demands that we should respect Cuban autonomy and show every respect to the national sentiment of the islanders. We set Cuba free from the thrall of Spain, and we cannot afford now to lay ourselves open to the charge of subjugating the island for the aggrandizement of the United States. We have the utmost confidence in the intentions of the President and the discretion of Secretary Taft. A policy of firmness, forbearance and patience, however, is necessary to vindicate the honesty of our purpose and the sincerity of our friendship for the Cuban republic.

Governor Terrell and the municipal authorities of Atlanta are to be commended for the prompt suppression of the race riot in the Georgia capital, and the protection since afforded the colored inhabitants of the city. All the reputable papers of the city condemned the outbreak and commended the authorities for suppressing it. The mob was composed of the rough and disorderly element of the white population, and its temporary sway was due to the suddenness of the outbreak and the smallness of the police force. The great body of respectable whites in Atlanta condemn the affair in unmeasured terms. This is certainly reassuring, but something should be done to punish the rioters who disgraced Atlanta by murdering and maiming innocent colored people going quietly about their bus—

The Nominee of the People.

Among the candidates on the Republican county ticket none is more worthy of public confidence than A. K. Grim, who has served two terms as Recorder, and has made a record which challenges comparison. He is the nominee of all parties, and should be elected by acclamation. The first time he ran he had the nomination of no party; the second time he was the nominee of the Democratic and Union Labor parties, and this time he is the joint nominee of the Republican, Democratic and Union Labor parties. Yet he has always been an unflinching Republican, and never denied his colors. This year the Republicans manifest a wisdom that was lacking four years ago when they refused to nominate him in the face of the plainly evident fact that the voters wanted him.

Mr. Grim's administration of the Recorder's office cannot be praised too highly. He has devoted all his time and attention to it, has every detail of the office at his fingers' ends, and has reduced business to the strictest method. In consequence, everything in the office moves with admirable precision and promptitude, while never a complaint is heard.

Under Mr. Grim's management the Recorder's office has become a considerable revenue producer, a matter that taxpayers should not consider unworthy of attention. There is also the most rigid economy in every department, as well as discipline and strict business method. The combination of capacity, economy, integrity and industry cannot be improved on, and the people of Alameda county are so well satisfied with it that there are no candidates to dispute Mr. Grim's claim to re-election.

If you want a good thing, put your money into Oakland real estate. A safer and more profitable investment cannot be found.

COLOR FANCIES.

I used to think a girl in pink
The dearest of her race,
So artless were her wiles and sweet,
So lily-like her grace.

Another queen was clad in green,
I loved her none the less;
We strayed beside the willow wood
Our secrets to confess.

The maid in white, a vision bright,
Next claimed my fickle heart.
She made me captive, serf and slave
By some strange, subtle art.

And now the crown, a girl in brown,
The dearest joy in life!
I loved her more than all before—
This maid in brown, my wife.

—Charles Henry Chesley in The Bohemian.

"So charmed to meet with you again, I'm sure, Mrs. Jones."

"Pardon me, but I haven't been Mrs. Jones for three husbands. I am now Mrs. Jones-Hyphen-Stevens-Brown."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

OSGOODS'

Two Department Drug Stores

Do you know that Osgoods' Department Drug Stores are known as the "one better" stores.

No matter what inducement others may hold out for your patronage, Osgoods will always be found "one better."

Suppose it's a trunk that you need—and everybody needs a good trunk—Osgoods will not only fix you up one better, but five. That is to say he will sell you a strong, convenient and capacious trunk for $7 that others would charge you $12 for.

Suppose it's cigars. At every other store you will pay 12½c for standard cigars. Osgoods goes them all one better and sells them for 10c.

Suppose it's rubber goods—Osgoods will always be found one better in prices and quality than any other store.

Perhaps its proprietary medicines—no matter what other alleged cut-rate stores may advertise, you will always find that Osgoods goes them one better.

Just now the big department drug store at Twelfth and Washington streets has added an enormous trunk department in the magnificent, well-lighted basement that was intended originally for a louvre. It's the finest display of trunks in the State. But this does not surprise anybody who knows Osgoods.

And there you are.

WEDDING DAY IS NAMED

Miss Alice Britton Will Be the Bride of Dr. Keefe—Society Events.

BUILT UP HER HEALTH

SPEEDY CURE OF MISS GOODE

She Is Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Writes Gratefully to Mrs. Pinkham.

For the wonderful help that she has found Miss Cora Goode, 355 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill., believes it her duty to write the following letter for publication, in order that other women afflicted in the same way may be benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes;

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I tried many different remedies to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulence), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, can be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

ELLA CLEMENS IS PRIDE OF CHINESE AND SHE IS HAPPY

Howard Gould, the Multi-millionaire in New York, Has a Mongolian Brother-in-Law.

Miss Ella Clemens, sister of Mrs. Howard Gould and divorced wife of Charles B. Overacker of Niles, married Sun Yue, a Chinese, in San Francisco.

Howard Gould the rich New Yorker, who married Katherine Clemmons, now has a Chinese brother-in-law.

It is all very well to read about, but you can imagine the dismay of the multi-millionaire.

HOUSE OF GOLD.

Close to the shriveled heart of that famous, fascinating, unsavory, spectacularly barbaric section, now merely a memory, Ella Clemens three months ago resumed her missionary labors. There, on the block between Powell and Stockton streets, near Clay, was the historic old house that for years she had called home—"The House of Gold," she termed it, and dated therefrom all her correspondent. There pattered the sandaled feet of little Chinese children, through a doorway that never was closed. There gathered a horde of a hundred terrified Chinese men, women and wondering babes, when Chinatown became fuel for the flames that had swept clean the white man's city from Kearny street to the bay. There, at midnight of that fateful Wednesday, the soldiers compelled her to abandon her household treasurse. And there she chooses to pass her honeymoon with a man of alien race.

SHE'S SO HAPPY.

Ella Clemens, married according to the law of the land years ago, was given her legal freedom later by Judge Melvin and permission to resume her maiden name. She has ignored the exacting rules of Caucasian making in selecting a second mate. She acknowledges Sun Yue her husband and has taken his name. She wears a heavy jade band which he placed upon her third finger of her left hand. She says: "It is my wedding ring." Around her left wrist is a thick bracelet of the same precious greenish-hued stone. "My wedding bracelet," she explains, looking down upon it fondly, fingering it as might any bride and smiling the while.

"I am happy, very happy," she said yesterday. Her blue eyes did not belie her words. They sparkled. A flush mounted to cheek and brow.

"Your husband—where is he?"

"Cleaning bricks," was the reply. She lifted her head proudly. There was a bit of defiance in the poise of it upon her plump shoulders.

"In the ruins yonder?"

"Yes. He earns $2 a day. He works hard and uncomplainingly. He is good and kind—but all Chinese are good and kind to their wives, for that matter. Do I love him? I think so. We were married after the laws of his country. Do not ask me when, how or where. I shall not tell you. But you have my permission, since you have heard the truth, to publish the fact."

"You must have very strong reasons for taking such a step. Are you willing to do as Ruth did of old?"

Mrs. Sun Yue repeated the text softly:

"'Whither thou goest I will go; where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy people shall be my people and thy God my God.'"

She rather leans to the mystical in her speech; she has the missionary trick of preaching in her ordinary conversation and she is full of texts and the philosophy of creeds.

"Do you mean that you have renounced the Catholic faith to worship idols and the teachings of Confucius?"

NO MORE CREEDS.

"I have not renounced. Not that. Say, rather, that I have withdrawn from the field. I have fully resolved to teach and preach no more creeds. Hereafter I shall establish a refugees' creed; the creed of doing good where it is most needed; of lending the helping hand. I shall profess no doctrine other than that. As for following the precepts of Confucius, I can worship Christ and Confucius both with consistency. Both were marvelous men, and one of them was divine. They were apostles of simplicity. Confucius was a great teacher, and the Chinese venerate him as such. His pillow was always a sack of rice. He was the soul of self-abnegation.

"For eight years I labored night and day among the women and children in Chinatown, the only Catholic here who ever devoted herself to that branch of missionary endeavor. The Protestants worked only among the men. Now a new life is before me. I love the Chinese people. They are neither understood nor appreciated. There is much that is noble and beautiful in their lives. My marriage will make me one of them. I shall know them from the inside of their lives—the side that the world does not see."

The sister of Katherine Gould is rehabilitating in a way all her own on the terrace of a windswept hill with a magnificent view of bay and burned district, almost within the classic shadow of the stately Fairmount Hotel. It is a plateau of much picturesqueness. Six tents are pitched there. Two of white canvas are the missionary's sleeping apartment and place of prayer. The others, brown Sibley tents, are occupied by twenty Chinamen. They all work at cleaning bricks, excepting the old blind man, who toils patiently the day through in camp sharpening hatchets and supplying them with handles for the men to work with and for choping wood.

QUARRELED WITH HER LOVER WHILE ON HER DEATHBED

Engagement Ring Was Returned, and Now the Would-Be Bride Is Very Low in Health.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—To save the life of her pretty daughter, which for three weeks was hung in the balance, Mrs. Martinez Savin of Tia Juana, Mexico, yesterday consented to the marriage of Angela Savin to Howard W. Throckmorton, a wealthy young Englishman and New York clubman. The young girl was happy when the news was broken to her and arrangements went on apace. Throckmorton was informed of the mother's consent at his hotel in this city last night and this morning he went to Long Beach to see his fiancee. While he was at the hospital a quarrel arose between the couple. The young woman returned Throckmorton's ring, the engagement was broken and the wedding ceremony, which was to have taken place, was declared off.

Throckmorton came West about six months ago with his friend, George C. Boldt Jr., son of the proprietor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, and during a visit to Tia Juana the young men fell violently in love with the Savin sisters, Estelle and Angela, beautiful Spanish girls and belles of the Mexican city. Mr. Boldt eloped in an automobile with Miss Estelle Savin and Throckmorton and Miss Angela assisted in the elopement.

After his friend was married to the elder sister, Throckmorton declared his love for pretty Miss Angela and found that the bright-eyed senorita returned his affection. But parental objections prevented a marriage, and in order to guard against a second elopement in the family, Miss Savin was closely watched.

Young Throckmorton was an ardent and persistent wooer and as he had completely won the heart of the girl the couple did not despair.

About three weeks ago Miss Savin was stricken with appendicitis. She was taken to the Long Beach Hospital, where an operation was performed, which was declared to be successful, but Miss Angela did not improve. She became like a shadow and her life was despaired of. Denied the presence of her sweetheart, it was said that grief was slowly but surely killing her, when Dr. Crenshaw, realizing love to be a more powerful remedy than surgery or medicine, said to Mrs. Savin, "Unless you consent to the marriage of your daughter to Throckmorton I fear that her life cannot be saved."

The mother yielded, and but for the quarrel a quiet wedding would have taken place inside the hospital walls.

FREDDIE MARRIES A PRETTY CHORUS GIRL

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Broadway and the clubs remarked a coincidence today when almost on the eve of Mrs. Langtry's arrival in this city announcement was made of the marriage of Frederick Gebhard to another woman of the stage, a "Florodora" girl, Marie L. Gamble.

"Yes, I married Gebhard and Marie Gamble the day after New Year's," said the Rev. Dr. Henry Marsh Warren. "I made no especial effort to keep it a secret, although Gebhard did say that he preferred to keep the matter somewhat quiet. I filed the certificate promptly."

Gebhard and his bride could not be found. They are believed to be somewhere in the country. Gebhard has been around the clubs off and on recently. As late as last month Mrs. Gebhard was at the Hotel Walcott, living under the name of Mrs. Wimstatt. Wimstatt was her first husband.

Gebhard is wealthy, but so is his new wife. When the "Florodora" craze broke out in this country, one of the original sextetters was Marie Gamble, better known as Marie Wilson.

MEN CHAMPIONED MRS. WILLIE COLLIER

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Louise A. Collier, wife of Willie Collier, the actor, was championed early today by all the men passengers on a Bay surface car which was in charge of a pugnacious conductor. As a result one of the men was arrested.

The trouble came about through Mrs. Collier's anxiety to catch a car for home. She had been playing in the Herald-square Theater and accompanied by her maid tried in vain to stop a northbound car. One of the passengers rang the bell after the car had passed the crossing, and the car stopped, whereupon Mrs. Collier and her maid boarded it. The conductor turned on Mrs. Collier and began abusing her because she delayed him. Other passengers took her part. The conductor invited the men passengers to get off and fight, and every man on the car answered the challenge and got off. Soon after the conductor complained to a policeman that J. D. Haugh, a broker, had beaten him on the head and shoulders with a cane.

Epileptic Fits of Children

Epilepsy or fits in children is even of greater frequency than in older people. In their active and restless life an attack is liable to come at a fatal moment, and the sunshine of home will be crushed out of existence. At the very sign of epilepsy or nervous twitching or trembling, Elixir Kolone should be used.

This remedy is the discovery of a well known Washington scientist, and is the only known cure for epileptic fits. It can be used by all ages, and is a positive cure for this dread disease. Owl Drug Co., the local agents, have so much faith in this remedy that they will give a guarantee that it will cure or else the price $1.50 will be refunded. Mail orders filled The Kolone Co., Washington, D. C., or Owl Drug Co., 13th and Broadway.

LARGER FIRE LIMITS ARE RECOMMENDED

Council Committee Takes Up and Agrees Upon the Report of Chief Ball.

Fire limits in this city will probably be extended within the near future. Members of the ordinance and judiciary committee of the City Council took the matter under consideration last night and recommended that the plans of Fire Chief Ball, who fixed new limits at the request of the Board of Public Works, be made into the form of an ordinance. Territory within the new fire limits will be bounded as follows: Beginning at Fourth and Clay streets, east to Franklin, north to Seventh, east to Webster, north to Eleventh, east to Alice, north to about Fifteenth, west, through private property, to Franklin, north to Twentieth, west to Grove, south to Seventeenth, east to Jefferson, south to Seventh, east to Clay and south to Fourth.

Present limits are bounded by Clay and Webster, and Fifth and Seventeenth streets. The new limits include the $2,000,000 hotel to be erected on the entire block bounded by Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Harrison and Alice streets. The council has received assurances, however, that the new caravansary is to be thoroughly fireproof. Because of the rapid growth of the business district it has been found necessary to extend the fire limits and prevent the poor and flimsy construction of mercantile buildings. Another matter under consideration is the bringing of all buildings along the water front under the mill construction law. This matter is now under consideration.

HOPES REST ON AMERICAN

Russian Visits United States to Prepare Monster Appeal to Czar for Peace.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Ivan Ivanoch Noroday, head of the Russian liberty organization, who arrived here last Tuesday from Russia, explained yesterday what his reported secret mission was.

"I was sent here," he said, "by the Russian military party to represent 150,000,000 people in an appeal to the world for a petition to the Czar asking for peace and a new form of government."

M. Noroday said his people look to the United States for a larger part of the support in this new movement, which was suggested to his party, he said, by the Czarina's secretary.

"It has been proved conclusively," said the Russian reformer, "that it avails nothing to wage a war of blood upon the Czar, so we have decided instead to declare on him a war of education and moral sunsion."

Mr. Noroday expects to seek the support of William J. Bryan and Congressman John Sharp Williams. He will organize clubs in many of the large cities to obtain signatures to the petition.

PLAN MANY IMPROVEMENTS

Council Committees Take Up Measures of Interest to the Taxpayers.

The committees of the City Council met in regular session last evening and considered various matters, among them being applications for street work and the further beautifying of the city.

The street committee recommended the following:

Petition of G. W. Brown to sewer Rose street from Spring to Canning street.

Ransome Construction Company's petition to grade, curb and macadamize Clinton street by private contract.

Property owners' petition to sewer Sixth street from West to Brush street.

That the deeding of a piece of property on Locust, near Twenty-third street, to the city by the Oakland Paving Company be accepted.

The petition of the Ransome Construction Company to recurb, gutter and bituminize Eighth street between Washington and Clay streets by private contract.

Piedmont Paving Company's petition to grade, curb and macadamize Second street between Alice and Jackson streets.

The petition of H. P. Gray to sewer Jean street.

Ransome Construction Company's petition to macadamize Forty-fourth street between Telegraph avenue and Grove street by private contract.

The resolution of intention to regrade, curb and gutter Thirteenth avenue between East Twelfth and East Fourteenth streets.

Resolution of intention to pave San Pablo avenue for 150 feet north of Nineteenth street.

That the petition of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson to close a portion of Willow street be denied.

The petition of Frank Curtier to grade, curb and macadamize East Twentieth street from Nineteenth to Twenty-second avenue.

That the plans and specifications of the city engineer for sewering Yerba Buena avenue and Center street be accepted. The city engineer estimates the cost of the sewer at $9500.

The resolution of intention to sewer East Eighteenth street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth avenues.

The petition of the Spring Construction Company to macadamize and gutter Sixty-second street in the Claremont tract, with the provision that the company give the council an agreement that will be satisfactory to the superintendent of streets.

The wharf and water front committee recommended that a building be erected on the Webster-street wharf, to accommodate the largely increased amount of freight now being brought into and taken away from this city, at a cost of $1500. It was also recommended that the rent of Piper, Aden, Goodall Co., who operate a line of steamers to and from this city and who use the warehouses on the city wharves, be raised from $100 to $200, as the concern is now using twice the space that it did formerly.

HORSES FOR ARMY SCARCE

Difficulty in Obtaining Mounts for Cavalry and Prices Are High.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Difficulty is being experienced by the quartermaster general's department of the army in obtaining horses and mules. Even at high prices good cavalry horses are scarce and nearly impossible to procure. The scarcity is not local but extends throughout the country, even in the stock raising regions of the west and northwest. A few weeks ago a contractor in the State of Washington was awarded a contract to supply 500 cavalry horses for the army at his own bid of $92 a head. Thus far he has been unable to fill the contract and it is regarded as likely he may be financially ruined in his efforts to meet his obligations to the United States.

A short time before General Funston was ordered to Cuba he requested authority to purchase, in an emergency, fifty cavalry horses at $160 a head. The request was refused by the department because of the contract which the government had made for such horses at $92 a head. On account of the scarcity of horses, animals suitable for the cavalry are now worth about $140 a head. Mules are even higher than horses. Good mules are worth $180 a head and are difficult to get at that price on account of the great foreign demand.

Returns from the bids opened last Tuesday in the west for cavalry horses and mules have not been received at the war department yet, but it is expected that the prices will be high, particularly as the specifications required delivery within fifteen days of the award of the contract.

The King's Highway calls for a course of about two miles and a half and John M. The Prospect Handicap is over the about six furlongs course and Salvidere, Sewell, DeMund, Mentha, Superman, Clare Russell, J. C. Core, Penarris, Ethon, Fontainebleu, Loring, W. H. Daniel, The Wrestler, Kentucky Beau, Okenite, Red River, Bat Masterson, Turenne, Arcite and Telmaceo are among the youngsters that may measure strides here. The Oriental is at a mile and a quarter with a fine entry list, of which Dandelion, Go Between, Salvidere, Cottontown, Nenlon, Outcome, Ginette, Flip Flap, Running Water, Content, Brookdale Nymph, Ostrich, Sir Huon, Entree, Bedouin, Accountant, Eugenia Burch, Logistilla and Fine Cloth appear the most prominent.

STARS AND TRIPES NEEDED, SAYS CUBAN

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Nicholas Rivero, proprietor and editor of El Diario de la Marina, the oldest paper in Cuba, said last night that the county would not be settled until a permanent United States commissioner was appointed by President Roosevelt. The Cubans would like to see General Wood return to the island. The sight of the Stars and Stripes floating from one of the public offices in Havana, Senor Rivero said, would serve to keep the turbulent spirits in check.

NO TAINTED MEAT HERE

Olson Market Proves That It Handles No Bad Beef.

Owing to the arrest of Robert Shenson, a butcher in San Francisco, on a charge of having tainted meat in his possession the impression has become circulated among a number of meat consumers in this city that Shenson is connected with Olson's market incorported in Oakland.

President Henry Olson stated to a TRIBUNE representative today that Shenson only leases a department in the Olson new market, San Francisco, to carry on a butcher business, and that the local firm furnishes him no meat whatever. As far as the quality of the beef sold by the Olson's market, incorporated, of Oakland is concerned it has always been of the best, and on no occasion has tainted meat ever been found for sale on their premises at Ninth and Washington

STORM MOVES AWAY NORTH

Normal Conditions Prevail in Arkansas, While Rain Continues in the South.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Weather bureau reports today indicate that the southern storm is now in central Arkansas, much diminished in strength. The wind has subsided and normal conditions prevail. The storm will doubtless continue in a northern direction and merge with a second disturbance that is moving eastward, north of the Dakotas. Rain has continued in the lower Mississippi Valley, the east Gulf and South Atlantic States, and overspread the middle Mississippi

For tonight and Saturday, rain is predicted in the Ohio Valley, the South Atlantic States and the Western portion of the middle Atlantic States in the lower lake region. The temperature changes will be generally unimportant. Winds along the middle Atlantic Coast will be fresh northeast; along the south Atlantic Coast, fresh southeast becoming northeast; along the east Gulf Coast, fresh and variable. On the lower lakes, fresh southeast.

FELL BENEATH TROLLEY CAR

Man Just Arrived From Portugal Has Experience He Will Not Forget.

M P Brancho who arrived in this city last night from Portugal, had an experience he will long remember

Had it not been for the sudden stopping of a car on the East Fourteenth street line his relatives would now in all probability be reading of his tragic death As it was Brancho was pulled from beneath the fender of a westbound car and the injuries he sustained caused him to howl with pain

He was unable to stand, and the fact that he could not speak English made it impossible for him to explain his injuries He was brought to the Receiving hospital and treated by Dr Koford He sustained a number of cuts on the head and was badly bruised about the body

At the time of the accident Brancho was on his way to visit a friend at 1470 East Twentieth street and was riding in a Fourteenth street car When the car reached a point between East Eighteenth and East Nineteenth streets, Brancho jumped off and was thrown violently to the ground and in front of a swiftly moving westbound car The motorman of that car saw Brancho and succeeded in stopping the car just a second before the wheels would have struck and mangled him or killed him outright.

SOCIALIST MILLS TO SPEAK.

Walter Thomas Mills, who is, perhaps, the foremost Socialist in America today, and who is one of their most powerful speakers will discuss the issues of the campaign from the standpoint of the wage workers in Hamilton hall, Thirteenth and Jefferson streets Monday evening October 1 at 8 o clock

Mills is known all over this country and he has spoken to large crowds of people in every important city of the nation and every place where he has spoken he has been enthusiastically received In The Jungle he is spoken of in this fashion There was a man in the party who was known as "The Little Giant The Lord had used up so much material in the making of his head that there had not been enough left to complete his legs but he got about on the stage and when he shook his raven whiskers the pillars of capitalism rocked"

One of the peculiarities of his speaking is that he can appear to be funny and at the same time be very serious In addition to his ability as an orator he enjoys the distinction of being the author of "The Struggle for Existence," a standard work on Socialism.

An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged to the lecture Monday evening.

SAYS BOOK IS YEAR'S EVENT

Wickson Praises Highly Hilgard's Scientific Volume on Agriculture.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Professor E. J. Wickson, dean of the department of agriculture of the University of California, in a statement issued last evening, declares that the appearance of Professor's Hilgard's book on soils is the greatest event of the agricultural year in California. He considers that this crowning achievement of Professor Hilgard's many long years of labor will create an abiding respect for California among scholars of the world. After eulogizing Professor Hilgard, almost all of whose work has been done in this State, Professor Wickson goes on to say:

"Other events may be greater from the point of view of immediate commercial and industrial concern; other events may have clearer connection with individual failure or success or with local plans of development and progress, but none is more significant as an indication of the position of California in the recent attainments of applied science and none reaches farther into the future agricultural development of the State because none is more essential to such development nor more fundamental in the attainment of it.

"Professor Hilgard's book has this specific title: 'Soils, Their Formation, Composition and Relations to Climate and Plant Growth in the Humid and Arid Regions.' The plan of the work is admirable and a sketch of it will indicate its breadth and richness of contents. It is divided into four parts: (1) Origin and formation of soils. (2) Physics of soils. (3) Chemistry of Soils. (4) Soils and Native Vegetables. These subjects are discussed in twenty-six chapters, filling 573 pages, large octavo, and constitute the book a portly and dignified treatise of the scientific class. Although the book is clearly of scientific and not of popular classification and although the author does not hesitate to discuss the most obscure and unsolved problems of soil, science and philosophy, h is characteristically lucid style and his constant use of facts of common agricultural observation for illustrative purposes makes it much of the work so readily intelligible that any careful reader, though he may be unskilled in the sciences involved, can draw from the work a clear understanding of the nature of soils to the substance of plants and can secure suggestions of soil amelioration which are of the highest practical value.

"Pertinent illustrations assist the reader notably to an understanding of the text. Because of this eminent service which the book renders to agricultural practice and because of its manifest relations, not only to the betterment of single farms, but to the development of agricultural enterprises upon vast areas of unused soils, it becomes an effective agency both for the promotion of individual prosperity and the future well-being of the human race. The reading of any single chapter will strongly commend these impressions: the dignity of the subject, the mastery of the author and his ability to connect his science with the life problems of individuals and of nations, so far as observation goes, such a combination of qualities in a technical work is rare.

"We have counted the appearance of this work the greatest agricultural event of the year in California. Aside from and beyond all estimates of the local importance of the accomplishment, there comes the proud satisfaction that this man has lived the best of his life in California and that Californians have appreciated and honored him. His work has repaid the favor of the State. His work has made California better known throughout the world than that of any other man, and his researches have more favorably influenced not only the erection of standards in his specialty but the proper methods of approaching them. The connected account of his thoughts and the observations upon which they rest will systematize and concentrate discussion and lay the foundation for the world's soil work of the future. That California should have attained such a commanding position in science during the first half century of its life as a commonwealth is a warrant for honest pride and sincere rejoicing."

Do Your Meals Fit?

DO YOU FEEL SNUG AND COMFORTABLE AROUND YOUR WAIST LINE AFTER A HEARTY MEAL?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have patted your protuberity in glee and felt proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Do you feel rosy now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form, and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour risings or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak. If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloaty feeling of aversion to food, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty, and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—one grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong, powerful stomach. They actually digest your food for you. Besides, they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested, it will give you strength, vim, energy and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all around your waist line after every meal and it will make you feel good all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel happy after eating a good, hearty meal. Take one or two after eating. You'll feel fine—then your meals will fit, no matter what or when you eat.

We want to send you a sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets free of charge, so you can test them yourself and be convinced. After you have tried the sample, you will be so satisfied that you will go to the nearest drug store and get a 50c box.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 52 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

STRIKE CRISIS IS AGAIN FACING MILL OWNERS

Employes Demand Further Increase and Favorable Answer Must Come Tomorrow.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Unless the mill owners of Berkeley accede to the demands that have ben made on them by their employes by next Saturday night, it is possible that a big strike may occur. Some time ago the mill workers made a demand for an increase of 25 per cent in their wages and the mill owners agreed to give them a raise of 12½ per cent. A temporary truce was effected when this raise was granted.

Many of the men received 50 cents a day more than they had been given formerly and the employers believed they would be satisfied. But now the men demand at least a dollar a day additional and trouble is brewing in a number of mills where the owners now believe they are being imposed on.

Should a strike be declared, a hardship will be worked on the building industry in Berkeley. So many buildings are in course of erection in this city that all the mills are behind with their orders.

Employers will have to give their decision by tomorrow evening at the latest and unless the raise demanded is granted by that time, it is believed that there will be a general walkout.

JAPANESE TO BUILD CHURCH

Union Christian Society Now Has No Home of Its Own in Which to Worship.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—The Japanese of Berkeley are to have a church of their own. The proposed new religious institution, which will be known as the Japanese Union Christian church, is now in process of organization. Rev. W. P. Bentley, of 2415 Hilgard street, who is at the head of the work conducted on this coast by the Christian church among the Orientals, is taking the initiative in the formation of the Japanese church. At present the nucleus of the congregation of the new church holds nightly school meetings in the First Christian church. There are about fifty Japanese in the class at the present time and those who are interested in the formation of the new church believe that the membership will reach several hundred. Under existing conditions the Japanese have no place where they can hold services in a body. There is a Japanese Union church in Oakland and the Berkeley Orientals plan to form their church after the one in that city.

PETITION FOR STUDENT HOUR

Men Students at University Hold Mass-Meeting and Discuss System.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Enthusiasm was rampant at a monster meeting of the men students of the University held in Harmon Gymnasium last night. The honor system was discussed and a movement started to petition the faculty for a regular student hour on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Harry Jenkins spoke in favor of a student hour, quoting President Wheeler as sanctioning the innovation. Erle Daveler spoke for the honor committee. He said, in part:

"We of the honor committee leave the proposition to you fellows and appeal to your personal honor as students to eliminate cheating. At the end of the examination papers, let each man pledge himself by personal signature that he has not cheated. That is all we ask for and assuredly we ought to be backed by the students at large. The examination will be no longer under direct faculty surveillance."

California—Rah! Rah!
California—Rah! Rah!
California—Rah!!!

TIRES BURST; HORSE BOLTS

Animal Tramps on Bicycle and Runs Away With Chairs for Whist Party.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—A runaway which almost broke up the whist party of Company G, National Guard of California, happened from a peculiar cause yesterday afternoon. Two men were unloading chairs from the wagon of E. D. Ells. The horse suddenly stepped to the sidewalk and in doing so pushed a hoof through a bicycle wheel. A nail in the shoe punctured a tire and it exploded with a loud report. The startled horse jumped to the side and in doing so crashed onto the other tire. It also exploded. The two loud reports were too much for the animal and it dashed down the street with the chairs intended for the whist party. The horse was finally caught near the Fruitvale bridge, badly winded. The chairs were brought back in time for the tournament and the owner of the animal paid for the punctured tires.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—A large number of Berkeley Od Fellows are preparing to attend the annual cantonment to be held by the Patriarchs Militant in the department of California at Watsonville on October 1 to 6 inclusive. Those who will attend from this city are either members of Canton Berkeley No. 7 or Canton Oakland No. 11.

There are three regiments in the California department, and Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, Vallejo, Petaluma, Santa Rosa and Napa are nearby cities in the third regiment.

Several valuable prizes are to be offered in the competitive drills and it is expected that the canton under Captain Pape will capture many of the most valuable trophies.

The affair took place at the school and the pupils attended to every want of the teachers. Miss Powell is to leave to accept a position in the Salinas High school. ASTHMA AND CATARRH SUFFERERS CURED BY TOXICO

Every Symptom of These Diseases Entirely Eradicated.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A most important discovery in medical research is that of Toxico, the Vienna formula, which cures all diseases of the respiratory organs, except consumption.

It is acknowledged that catarrh and asthma are the forerunners of the "great white plague," and the adoption of preventive measures is at present the best means of checking its spread. In order that catarrh and asthma sufferers may rid themselves of these dangerous diseases, The Toxico Laboratory, 1269 Broadway, New York, will send a sample treatment of Toxico, free by mail, to all who write for it.

WORK RUSHED ON FACTORIES

Plants for the Rolfe Cement Co. and Delanoy Concern Are Nearing Completion.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—Within three days after the Rolfe Cement Company had purchased the land on Blanding avenue, west of Park street, active building operations had begun and the structure to house this concern is now nearing completion. The company deals in cement bricks made by its patent. Fifty men are employed and the force will be increased to meet any demand.

The Delanoy Company is another concern which is rushing work on its factory. It is located at the corner of Broadway and Buena Vista, and combines the ideal and the practical. It is across the street from the proposed Southern Pacific freight depot. The owners have placed the factory, which is to manufacture plumbers' specialties, in the middle of a large tract. On two sides cottages are to be erected for the use of the employes of the firm. Palm trees have already been plantd and will borner the walks along the streets. The building is to be a shingled affair and will look more like a home than a factory.

The Park Hotel, built in 1876 by Senator Fair, is to be remodeled by Dean Brothers, who have leased the premises. This solid building withstood the earthquake, and is one of the best built structures in the city. The entire house is to be improved and will present a pleasing appearance when the work is finished.

C. H. Weaver has purchased the property at the southwest corner of Park street and Encinal avenue. He is to remodel it and there will be a number of stores. The price stated is about $12,000.

FRIGHTENED AT HER OWN NEIGHBORS

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—Frightened at the appearance of two men standing in front of her residence at 1106 Grand street, Mrs. A. Theodore telephoned the police station and asked that an officer be sent immediately, as the men were suspicious looking characters. Officer Wahmuth answered the call and found two well-known citizens smoking an after-dinner cigar and walking along the sidewalk while doing so. No arrests were made, and Mrs. Theodore was profuse in her apologies to the wives of the two men, who are almost next-door neighbors.

REPORTS THEFT OF $375 DIAMOND RING

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—Robert Heynemann reported to the local police last evening that on September 12 his room at the St. James boarding-house at the corner of Chestnut street and Santa Clara avenue was entered between the hours of 10 and 11 in the morning, and a solitaire diamond ring, valued at $375, stolen. Other jewelry on the dresser was not molested, and this fact leads to the belief that no practiced thief had a hand in the job.

WOMAN PLEADS GUILTY IN COURT

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Helmina Bruder, who on Sunday fired five shots into the basement of her home at 1507 Sherman street, where the family of Joseph Bruth resided, in an effort to drive her tenants from the premises, this morning pleaded guilty to the charge of discharging firearms within the city limits, and was fined $20 by Justice Tappan.

CANNOT SECURE PAPER, PUBLICATION IS LATE

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—The June number of the University Chronicle was issued yesterday by the university press. The issue is late because of the inability of the managers to secure paper in San Francisco after the fire. The Chronicle contains the following articles:

Lange; "On the Distinction Between the Art-Epic and the Folk-Epic," Cornelius B. Bradley; "Graduate Study in the College of Civil Engineering," Charles Derleth, Jr.; "University Record," Albert H. Allen.

STUDENTS RESCUE CUR FROM SLIMY GRAVE

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—A little yellow dog who thought he could swim found his mistake yesterday when he jumped into the slimy waters of the Chemistry pond at the upper end of the University of California campus. He was decidedly the worse for his experience when he was rescued by some friendly college students. When he was discovered he was all but drowned and was making a final effort to climb over the concrete coping of the pond.

SENIORS WILL RECEIVE; EVENING DRESS TABOOED

Strict Informality Will Mark First Reception Tonight to the Undergraduates.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—The first Senior assembly of the year is to be held tonight in Hearst hall. These functions, which were inaugurated two years ago, are strictly informal, evening dress being tabooed. The excuse these affairs have for being is that they are the only opportunity the undergraduate with little loose coin has of socially coming in contact with his fellow classmen. The committee in charge of the evening has worked hard and faithfully for the success of the affair. Its membership includes Miss Reby Bartley, Miss Cornelia Stratton, Gertrude Neely, Zoe Riley, Laura Bransford, J. G. O'Connor, J. C. Whitman, H. E. Leach, A. F. Sherman and Claude Ways Wayne (floor manager).

MISS REBY BARTLEY.

SERVES TWO CITIES AS THEIR ATTORNEY

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Harry H. Johnson of Berkeley has the unique distinction of being the attorney for two cities. For the past year he has been Berkeley's town attorney, and a few days ago he was chosen to represent Point Richmond in the courts. The latter appointment was unsought. Though it is unusual for a man to serve two towns as a public official, legal authorities say that such a case as Johnson's does not involve an illegal procedure.

GRIDIRON TOO NARROW FOR RUGBY

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—The arrangements for the intercollegiate freshman match between Stanford and the University of California, scheduled to take place on October 13, are still incomplete. At a meeting of the executive committee of the students' organization held last night Manager O. F. Snedigar of the athletic squads was ordered to confer with Manager D. D. Sales of Stanford and complete arrangements.

According to the agreement which exists between the two universities, the contest should take place at Palo Alto this year. As the Stanford field is too narrow for the Rugby game by ten yards, a serious objection has been voiced to having the game played down there.

COLLEGIANS IN A FIST FIGHT

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Because L. K. Underhill, a member of the junior or third-year class at the State University would not allow his dignity to be ruffled by having R. S. Holbeer, a freshman, sit next to him on the famous North Hall steps, the two collegians indulged in a fistic encounter late yesterday afternoon that is now the talk of the campus. The fight between the men was pulled off according to Queensberry rules and several rounds were fought before the men were separated.

According to those who saw the encounter, Underhill ordered Holbeer off the steps, declaring at the same time that the sacred steps of North Hall was no place for a freshman. Holbeer promptly retaliated by offering to go outside the university grounds to settle the trouble. The challenge was accepted and after gathering a few students who were to act as seconds and timekeepers, the angry men repaired to a remote spot.

The scrap was a vicious one from start to finish. The honors were even for the first few rounds but as the contest wore on the freshman is said to have had a shade the better of the fight.

INTERFRATERNITY BASEBALL LEAGUE

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—An interfraternity baseball league is to be formed by the fraternities at the University of California. A series of games may be arranged for this fall before the wet season set in. The fraternities have been playing baseball for some years, but no regular league has ever been formed.

SEPTEMBER TO BREAK RECORD

Number of Building Permits Thus Far Issued Far Ahead of August Figures.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—The number of building permits issued in Berkeley each month has been increasing by leaps and bounds. When 133 permits were issued last July it was believed that a record that would not be exceeded had been reached. Yet the July record was broken by an August record, and now it is certain that September will be the banner month. Up to Wednesday evening 176 permits had been issued, with three days left for the filing of applications. This is an average of eight permits a day.

Several tenants have already moved into the offices of the Dakin block or Studio building, as it will be known, though the building is scarcely completed. Within a few days the elevator will be in operation and all the other appointments in running order. The structure contains sixty-eight rooms and is elaborately fitted. The interior is of California woods—sugar and white pine and red and white fir. The feature of the building is the art gallery and studios, which will be maintained on the top floor.

The Wall building at the northwest corner of Durant and Telegraph is being rapidly completed and will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year. A lease of the one hundred rooms in the upper part of the building has been taken by Mrs. William Morris, formerly of the Cecil Hotel in San Francisco. She will have three entire floors, which will be furnished as the Hotel Carlton.

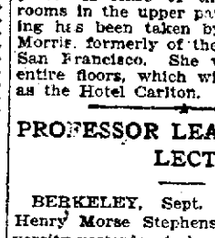

PROFESSOR LEAVES ON LECTURE TOUR

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Professor Henry Morse Stephens left the University yesterday to begin the University Extension lectures. Professor Stephens will visit Los Angeles before beginning his lecture tour, which will be in the vicinity of San Francisco. Professor Stephens will be gone about ten days, and during his absence all of his classes will be suspended. They will resume work October 8.

SATURDAY NIGHT HOP BY BASEBALL TEAM

The committee of arrangements consists of C. Atwater, Clarence Bush, M. Connolly and E. Seidel. The members of the reception committee will be E. Heister, C. Hust and A. R. Rankin.

HE WHO

would be well served must serve himself—if he knows how. That is the latest version of a well-worn maxim. Everything nowadays is paraphrased or parodied. Men laugh easily. Women no longer weep excepting at matinees and not always then. But business is still a serious occupation. There's not much chance for vaudeville there. The key to business success is "He who would be well served must serve others well." That fits my friend Lehnhardt all right. His service is excellent from "soda to hock"—all but the hock.

GREAT STORM SWEEPS THE GULF COAST

SALOON LICENSE WILL NOT BE INCREASED TO $1000 A YEAR

Councilman Thurston Makes Speech Before the Committee, but His Views Are Turned Down by the Members.

Increasing of saloon licenses in this city will not take place for some time to come if the recommendation of the license committee of the City Council, which met last night, is favorably passed upon by the council at its meeting next Monday night.

Councilman Thurston introduced an ordinance in the council last Monday night which provided that the saloon tax in this city be $1000 a year, or $250 a quarter. At the present time the license is $400 per annum, or $100 a quarter. The ordinance came up for consideration before the committee last night and after a few moments' discussion it was moved by Councilman Hahn that it be recommended to the council that the matter be postponed indefinitely. The motion was passed by the committee.

When the ordinance was read, calls were made for Councilman Thurston and he was asked by members of the committee whether he introduced the ordinance and if he did, why it was that he wished to have the saloon license raised.

"This ordinance was introduced by me in good faith," said Councilman Thurston. "While we were in committee meeting several nights ago we were all trying to devise ways and means to obtain more money to conduct the city government. I suggested that we raise the saloon license and Councilman Baccus asked me if I would introduce such a measure. I answered in the affirmative and have presented this ordinance for your consideration.

"This city has the lowest liquor license of any on the coast. I have compiled a list of many other large cities whose licenses are much greater than ours. Among them are New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Seattle, Los Angeles, Portland and San Francisco. All these cities have a much higher saloon tax and I find that an average of the amounts of the licenses in these different places is about $750 a year. We have a growing city and I do not see why our saloon license should not be as large as any of the other cities on the coast."

ASKED QUESTIONS.

"But you do not give us the difference in population between these cities and Oakland," said Councilman Burns.

"I think that our population figures closely with other cities of the Pacific coast which have higher licenses," was Councilman Thurston's answer.

"Do you think that the city would gain any additional revenue if the license was raised? Do you think that many saloons would have to go out of business if we raised the license to $1000?" were the queries of Councilman Baccus, chairman of the committee.

Councilman Thurston replied that no saloons would close their doors, as the raise in San Francisco did not affect a single one.

"There is no use bringing this matter up for discussion every few months," said Councilman McAdam. "It is only a play to create agitation."

"Do you mean to infer that I brought this matter up for mere agitation?" asked Councilman Thurston, addressing Councilman McAdam. "If you do, you are entirely in the wrong. You should not judge others by your own actions. I am sincere in this matter and would like to see the ordinance passed. I do not like to see a body of men sit back and whine about there being a lack of funds and then decline to pass laws to secure money, as in this instance."

Councilman Meese then moved that the license be placed at $125 a quarter, or $500 a year.

Councilman Baccus wanted to have the ordinance as proposed by Councilman Thurston laid on the table. Councilman Hahn then moved that it be recommended to the council that the matter be laid over indefinitely.

"I am sorry to see this action taken," were Councilman Thurston's parting words, "but I will state to you, gentlemen, that the matter will be brought before you again in the near future."

COUNCILMAN E. T. THURSTON JR.

LONGER HOURS.

The ordinance providing that the saloons be allowed to remain open until 1 o'clock, instead of 12 o'clock, was recommended to the council for passage. "Maybe that isn't class agitation," Councilman Thurston was heard to remark.

The following licenses were recommended to be granted: James Sullivan, 888 San Pablo avenue; Henry Scheiding, 810 Broadway; H. Schoenfeld, 1786 Seventh street; M. J. O'Dea and D. NEW ORLEANS CUT OFF FROM WORLD

Wires Are Down, Trains Delayed and the Damage Will Be Very Heavy.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28.—New Orleans early today was still cut off absolutely from communication with points on the Gulf Coast east of here. For thirty-six hours no information of any sort had come from towns less than an hour's ride by rail in the direction of Mobile, and anxiety regarding the situation in those places became intense. The gulf towns are summer resorts of New Orleans, and many members of many families have been separated by the storm.

WASHOUT.

All day yesterday and last night the washout on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, twenty-five miles from here, marked the farthest point eastward reached by rail, telegraph or telephone. For hours after the hurricane had passed the two-mile portion of railroad tracks which was submerged by the in-coming tide was exposed to the equally dangerous outward flow of receding high water. Local Louisville & Nashville officials announce today all trains canceled until further notice.

This morning Lake Pontchartrain had calmed and the high water fallen to very near its normal level.

The first reports from interior Mississippi towns indicated that the hurricane did great damage in its northward progress. Vicksburg and Macomb City reported buildings injured, and Jackson and Brook Haven reported damage of 10 per cent to the cotton crop.

TRAIN SLOWS UP.

Dr. W. N. McGallaird, a passenger on the first New Orleans & Northeastern train which came into the city late last night, said the train was compelled to run slow through the storm yesterday, with trees constantly falling, some of which threatened to block the track in falling. Unroofed or demolished negro cabins were continually passed. Frequently, he said, lashing of the wind and crack of the trees made a roar which drowned out the train's rumble.

Reports from Monticello, Miss., say that considerable damage was done to pine forests near there, hundreds of trees being uprooted. Trees had fallen across the railroad tracks to such an extent as practically to suspend railroad traffic toward the east of Monticello.

The brief dispatches received here indicated that the losses in interior towns of Mississippi alone will reach hundreds of thousand of dollars. Heavy damage was not reported at any other points, but the storm appears to have demolished a few thousand dollars' worth of property in every county and town, tearing off roofs and blowing down scores of old frame buildings. Vicksburg reported damage to shipping. In addition to reports of cotton crop losses, passengers on incoming trains tell of widespread damage to timber. Telegraph and telephone wires were so universally damaged that every town yet heard from reported that at some time yesterday it was cut off from communication with the outside world. Verified loss of life thus far is confined to the death of one employe on the New Orleans and Northeastern Railroad, who was run down by a train during the storm. Reports of the collapse of a frame hotel at McComb City, brought in by passengers on the Illinois Central, have not been confirmed.

NEWS OF HAVOC.

The first news of the havic wrought by the hurricane on the lower Mississippi river delta was given by C. Ansel, a pilot, who came up from the mouth of the river on the tugboat Charles Clark.

Ansel said he saw the lower river banks strewn with household furniture of fishermen, but that most of these families had escaped from the high water by taking to their lugger-rigged boats. He saw the wreckage of two or three luggers floating down the river, but was unable to learn what became of their occupants. At the Mississippi river quarantine station two houseboats, used for the quartering of crews of fruit steamers, were sunk. The crews were taken off in safety.

WILL RUN TRAINS.

Officials of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad announce that an attempt will be made to run a train here in the direction of Mobile about 5 o'clock this afternoon. This announcement followed the receipt of cheering news from Bay St. Louis, Miss., the first of the gulf coast towns on the line to Mobile and the first to be heard from since the storm. Officials of the road, from Bay St. Louis who crossed the washout at Lake Catharine this morning, reported that the railroad, with the exception of this washout, is in good shape as far as Bay St. Louis.

STATION UNHARMED.

Ansel said: "As I came up the river from Port Eads yesterday afternoon we found the quarantine station unharmed, but the two boats used to quarter crews which are taken off fruit ships at quarantine, had been broken to pieces by the storm and had sunk. Their occupants were rescued without much difficulty.

"At several places I saw wooden cisterns which stand above the ground and are used by fishermen, lying on the river banks. There were also quantities of household furniture, especially bedroom articles. I do not, however, believe that there was much, if any loss of life among the fishermen. They put their families aboard their luggers and took shelter in the bayous when the storm drove the water inland. We saw the wreckage of two or three luggers floating on the river. Unless their occupants were rescued by others luggers they were probably drowned. I saw few persons along the shore when we passed this place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There was probably three to four feet o fwater over this part of the land when the flood was at its height.

BOATS SAFE.

"The two United States mail boats are safe. During the hurricane at Pilot Town we spent an uneasy night, but I am certain that no lives were lost there. All the inhabitants of the jetties came aboard the two pilot boats. Wharves and gangways were broken or washed away at Pilot Town.

"Southwest Pass must have had a cleaning out, judging from the direction of the wind and tide, and the fact that up to the time I left no one had come up from there."

Southwest Pass is the new entrance to the mouth of the Mississippi river, now under process of construction.

LITTLE DAMAGE.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Advices received today at the offices of J. T. Hanrahan, second vice-president of the Illinois Central Railroad, indicate that comparatively little damage from the storm had been sustained by that road to New Orleans and that traffic had been completely restored.

ARTHUR MAGILL MAY HAVE A WIFE

Percy Was Once a Barkeeper—A. L. McPherson Wins the Guardianship Battle.

MRS. PERCY MAGILL.

Percy W. Magill lost his fight with A. L. McPherson for the appointment of guardian of the estate of young Arthur E. Magill on the grounds of the latter's mental incompetence. Judge Harris decided on McPherson late yesterday afternoon at the conclusion of a legal battle between the attorneys which lasted throughout the day. In choosing the friend instead of the brother, Judge T. W. Harris stated that while he realized blood was thicker than water, he believed that McPherson would conserve the interests of Arthur better and for that reason appointed him. Bonds were placed at $20,000.

MAY HAVE A WIFE.

"The fight has only started," said Mrs. Percy Magill at the Hotel Metropole last night. "That is all we have to say at present. Arthur will arrive here next Tuesday and then you may look for further developments. It would not surprise me if we discovered Arthur had a wife, for you know it was reported that he was married in Germany and the same rumor gained extensive circulation last spring."

The testimony brought forth in the proceedings yesterday afternoon was devoted mainly to showing that Percy Magill was competent to handle and manage of $75,000 estate.

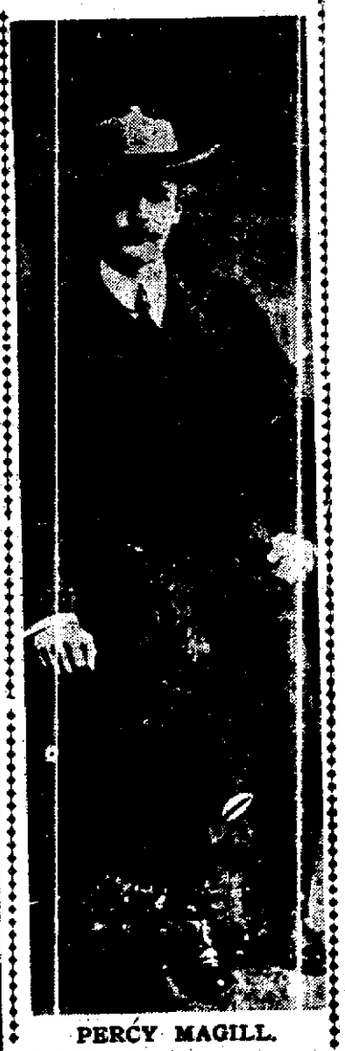

NO BUSINESS ABILITY.

H. L. Roff, Pacific coast agent of the Home Insurance Company, who was the elder Magill's successor in this position, testified as to the business abilities of both boys while they were employed by their father. Of the two sons Arthur "was no more able to handle more than $10 than I am to fly," yet he added that Arthur assumed a guardianship over Percy.

Edward Barry, president of the Stock and Bond Exchange, San Francisco, said both of the young Magills transacted business with him and he thought Percy competent.

Nathan Rosenberg, retired tobacco dealer, said Percy bought cigars and cigarettes from him and that these business relations told him that the young man was able to manage his brother's estate.

McPherson went on the stand and denied that he advised Arthur to disinherit Percy, but said that Arthur was angry with his brother on one occasion when Percy worked as a bartender in the Ferry Cafe, San Francisco. To McPherson's knowledge Arthur had lost only $100 through his advice on investments. He considered it his duty to the elder Magill, his "best friend," to look after the interests of the two boys, "and I intend to do so until the court decides otherwise."

PERCY MAGILL.

REPUBLICANS MEET IN TOWN OF SUNOL

Charles Thomas Makes a Lively Address to the Voters of the District.

The Republican county candidates invaded Sunol last night where a rousing meeting was held by the residents of that district in honor of the men seeking office. The little town hall was packed to its full capacity and much enthusiasm marked the occasion. Charles Hart acted as chairman, and the speeches were interrupted by songs rendered by the Elks' quartet. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Charles Thomas, Republican candidate for the office of county assessor. With the exception of Judge Ellsworth, Judge Waste and County Recorder Grim, all the candidates were present.

During the course of his remarks Mr. Thomas said:

"During the campaign thus far I have made speeches of a more serious nature than some of my associates on the ticket for the reason that the office to which I aspire and the fight I have to gain it require that I give the people facts and figures rather than generalities. I have to do this because I am not so well known as some of the others, have not had office, and, as I said before, have a fight to make. We have always had a hard fight over the assessorship of this county and this campaign is no exception. The present incumbent has told the people he is the friend of the poor man, but there are things I will endeavor to show you this next month that somewhat strain that claim. There is one glaring instance which I will give you tonight that probably will set you, in your quiet moments of reflection, to thinking just how good this claim is. If there is any man in the audience who can duplicate this and believe that it is right, then he should vote for my opponent.

"In Berkeley the richest corporation of the town is the Berkeley Bank of Savings, which is assessed by the town assessor and then the county assessor.

"In 1905 the town assessor assessed the building of the corporation at $50,000, and the personal property at $75,000, which totals an $125,000 assessment. The county assessor, if you please, cut the $50,000 building assessment down to $25,000, just in half, and the personal property assessment, which had been fixed by the town assessor at $75,000, to $11,900.

Now the president of that one institution himself admitted that the bank's personal property was valued at $182,000. So you can see for yourself the amount saved this corporation by the county assessor, who claims to be the poor man's friend. But that is only one corporation in one town in this whole county. I would not say this if I had not been accused by my opponents of being supported by some corporation in my fight. In the Republican convention I was backed by a district not controlled by corporation influences, while the railroad district, the Forty-ninth, voted solid for the present incumbent.

"During the campaign you will receive a statement which is being prepared, which will show you many instances of this sort of assessment which I have quoted to you tonight. All I wish you to remember is that I am a young man looking for a young man's chance, and if elected to the office I will not be known as any particular man's friend, but every man's friend, an assessor giving a square deal."

Others to address the meeting were Judge Ogden, George S. Pierce, candidate for county auditor; James B. Barber, candidate for tax collector; M. J. Kelly, candidate for treasurer; Everett Brown, candidate for district attorney; P. A. Haviland, candidate for county surveyor; John P. Cook, candidate for county clerk; George Frick, candidate for county superintendent of schools; Assemblyman Strobridge and Dr. Charles Tisdale, candidate for coroner.

MAY VACATE AMEN CORNER

Republicans to Leave Fifth Avenue for More Central Headquarters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Announcement was made last night that the Republican State headquarters, located at the Fifth Avenue hotel for thirty years, will probably be removed to a more central location. The announcement is of interest to public men all over the country. Most of them have, at some time or other, visited at the headquarters in the Fifth Avenue, which has been the scene of numerous momentous political conferences. Should the headquarters move, the "amen" corner established by Senator Thomas Platt may become a thing of the past.

State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, recently elected at Saratoga, sat down yesterday at the desk and in the chair so long occupied by Platt and Ex-Governor Odell at the headquarters at the Fifth Avenue and it was soon after he had taken charge that the announcement of the probable removal was made. Later, Mr. Woodruff and Secretary Gleason were out looking for new quarters and it was said the change may come at any time.

The work which won the victories of Morton, Black, Roosevelt, Odell, Higgins, Harrison and McKinley was planned and executed in the historical suite of rooms soon to be vacated.

NEW MOTORS ARE SUCCESS

Harriman Lines Will Install Gasoline Machines in Single Coaches.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Officials of the Harriman lines are busy experimenting with a new motive power. The idea is to have automobiles on rails. Single passenger coaches will be fitted up with gasoline motors, and will be used to speed along suburban routes or on branch lines where the travel is not sufficiently heavy to require locomotives, and one coach can often do the service. The motors have been tried out by the engineers of the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific, and the latest reports show that they are being perfected and will rapidly be adapted for the use of regular service.

The Union Pacific has been experimenting with the scheme for some time, and it is announced that the engineers of the road have fitted up several cars, which have operated to the perfect satisfaction of every one.

The idea is simple in the extrmee. In the rear of a single passenger coach a powerful gasoline motor is installed, resembling much the motor of an automobile. An attachment is made to the rear axle of the car, after the scheme of an automobile attachment, and the machine is ready for service. The only difficulty to overcome in the scheme has been the tremendous weight of the average passenger coach. It takes a high horsepower engine to drive the heavy coaches with any speed, and especially to overcome a grade of any difficulty.

Officials claim that the most serious aspects of the problem have been solved, and it will only be a matter of time before the new cars will be put into suburban service or along side lines. The new system will be much cheaper than hauling by locomotives, and it is thought that the single cars will be able to attain a higher speed. The idea appeals to the officials in that the entire equipment of a train will be the one car. This will cut down the train force and will almost make it possible to have the car operated by one man, or at least two. Powerful motors will be installed and high pressure air brakes, so that the single passenger coach will be whisked over the rails at a high rate of speed, and can be brought to a dead stop by the application of the powerful air brakes.

FINAL PLEADINGS IN SELBY SMELTING CASE

VALLEJO, Sept. 28.—What is one of the most interesting as well as the bitterest contested suits ever tried in this part of California is now in its final stages in this county. It is the suit of Solano County against the Selby Smelting and Lead Company. District Attorney T. T. C. Gregory has concluded his case for the prosecution after three days of oral efforts, and W. H. Chickering is now making the final pleadings for the defense. The suit has attracted wide attention among mining and legal men, as the value of the property under consideration will amount to millions, and many questions of interest to smelting are now being argued for the first time. It is expected that Superior Judge Harrier will render his decision in about two weeks.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH WELCOMES PASTOR

Grace Methodist Church people welcomed their new pastor, Rev. W. de L. Kingsbury last evening at the church, corner of Market and Thirty-fourth streets. Addresses of welcome were made by W. N. Russell, representing the church, Mrs. C. O. Oxnam, representing the former pastor, Rev. C. O. Oxnam, now city missionary in San Francisco, and Revs. E. R. Dille and A. J. Kennedy, from the adjoining parishes. Mr. Kingsbury made a fitting response. During the evening Mrs. Andrews and A. B. Weeks delighted the audience with solos. After the program all adjourned to the parlors, where the ladies served dainty refreshments.

SHAMROCK III HIS CEOICE

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—In a few hours—by noon tomorrow, it is expected—Sir Thomas J. Lipton will arrive in this city by the steamer Celtic. Although thrice defeated in his attempts to "lift" the America's cup, he is coming again with the intention, it is said, of trying a fourth time to separate that trophy from the control of the New York Yacht club, provided he can succeed in convincing that organization that a challenge for the cup under the present rule of measurement would be acceptable to it. If the New York Yacht club consents to race under its present rules, it is likely that Sir Thomas will challenge with Shamrock III, and the defender of the cup may be the Constitution, which is said to fit the rule better than the Reliance.

OLD SORES OFTEN LEAD TO CANCER

Whenever a sore or ulcer does not heal and shows signs of becoming chronic it should arouse suspicion, because many of these places lead to Cancer. It may appear as an ordinary sore at first, and is given treatment as such, with some simple salve, wash or plaster, with the hope that the place will heal, but the real seat of the trouble is in the blood and cannot be reached by external remedies, and soon the sore will return. After awhile the deadly poison begins to eat into the surrounding flesh and the ulcer spreads rapidly, becoming more offensive and alarming until at last the sufferer finds he is afflicted with Cancer. Cancerous ulcers often start from a boil, wart, mole or pimple, which has been bruised or roughly handled, showing that the taint is in the blood, perhaps inherited. Another cause for non-healing ulcers a sores is the remains of some constitutional disease or the effects of a l spell of sickness. S. S. S. goes down to t very root of the trouble and cures so thoroughly that there is never any sign of the trouble in after years. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S. S. S. the place begins to improve, the discharge gradually grows less, the inflammation leaves, the flesh resumes its healthy color, and soon the sore is well, because every vestige of the cause has been removed from the blood. Book on sores and ulcers and medical advice without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

I was suffering greatly from a cancerous ulcer on my left breast, which had begun to eat, and at times would discharge very offensive matter. I knew the trouble was hereditary as an only sister, my mother and two of her sisters died of Cancer. I am fully satisfied I would have gone the sameway but for S. S. S., which cured me.

TO IMPROVE THE PARK

Bushrod Place Will Be Improved as Soon as Possible.

Various improvements for the beautifying of Bushrod Park, which was donated to the city some time ago, were recommended by the auditing and finance committee of the City Council last night, and an ordinance appropriating $10,000 for the work was passed to the council with a favorable recommendation.

Under this ordinance it is provided that a water plant will be established in the park to pump water for use on the lawns and in the gardens, which will be laid out in the event of the passage of the ordinance, Councilman Burns introduced the ordinance in the Council. He stated that the land had been donated and should be put to use.

Members of the committee favored the plan and recommended the passage of the ordinance, believing that a park should be established at once in that section of the city in which Bushrod Park is located.

The same committee recommended that the Eighth street bridge be repaired, the superintendent of streets to have the piling done. At a later date plans for the future improvement of the bridge, which is in poor condition, will be drawn up.

It was also recommended that $492 be appropriated for the renovating of the offices of the Mayor and the Board of Public Works, the council chambers and the office of the city prison. These offices will be papered and painted if the money is appropriated by the Council.

Has a Group of Claims Showing a Series of Veins Extensively Mineralized at

KNOB HILL, ELDORADO NEVADA

Read What a Prominent Mining Authority Says of Our Camp:

"The Eldorado mines have been productive of rich minerals for about forty years. Ores running $2000 to $3000 per ton were mined from several properties near the surface, and several million dollars taken out. Recently a shipment returning $1400 per ton was sent out from the Mountain claims, and several of the mines have shipped sulphide ores running from $200 to $300 per ton. These ores resemble the Tonopah ores, but are less refractory. They are distinctly comparable to the Comstock, and carry, as a rule, rich values in silver."

Two of these properties are within a mile of the Gold Legion and show the same ledges. The Mountain mine is located on a ledge similar to that showing on the San Francisco No. 3, owned by this company. We have had values running over $300.00 gold per ton and as high as 55 ounces silver.

We have developed sulphide ores in two preliminary shafts.

IT WAS EVER LIKE THIS IN THE OLD, OLD DAYS

Prizefighting in ancient Greece as depicted by Cartoonist Ewer today is the first of a series of the artist's conception of the various methods employed by the nations of the earth to develop the manly art of self-defense

HERE IS A LIST OF YEAR'S BEST YEARLINGS

Seventeen thoroughbred yearlings were sold by auction this year for $5000 or more each, the highest price being $15,000 This was for the Watercress-Rosette colt which was in the California consignment of J B Haggin, sold in June, and out of which six others were knocked down for $5000 or more. Breeders and horsemen, however, have generally been disinclined to accept as a standard of values the prices obtained at the Haggin auctions They have set up the claim that many of this veteran breeder's horses have passed through the ring and into the hands of his agents at excessive values with the result that the general average has appeared larger than the actual cash transactions would show. This may or may not be true At any rate the yearlings are produced by Mr. Haggin and he probably feels that if there is any satisfaction in disposing of his stock under arrangements entailing contingencies he is entitled to it, or that if there is harm to come out of it he would be most affected Support to the argument of those who disapprove of the Haggin methods is found in the fact that at the sale of the Bennington horses on Saturday last the Watercress-Teatro colt, which in June had been knocked down to Newton Bennington on a bid of $14,000 was sold back to Mr Haggin for $6600, and the Watercress-Colonial colt, which the Long Island real estate dealer had taken on a bid of $5000, was declared sold to John Mackey for $1000. Here is the list of the seventeen stars.

GOOD CARD OF BOUTS FOR WEST OAKLAND CLUB

The card of bouts which will take place at the West Oakland club on Tuesday evening are attracting a great deal of attention, and everything points to a good evening's sport. All the matches are good ones, and can be relied upon to be full of action from start to finish, as the contestants are in excellent condition and eager for the fray.

The main event between Carter and Gordon should be a hot one, as both have a terrific punch with either hand, and know how to land Both are experienced and have had numerous battles in San Francisco They have always put up red-hot bouts, and as they are anxious to see who is the better man, a hot go can be looked for.

Carter has appeared at the club a number of times and has always put has man away in a couple of rounds he is a mixer from start to finish In Gordon, he finds a man who has a good record behind him, and is a mixer from the tap of the gong to the finish. Gordon has boxed at several of the San Francisco clubs and also at the Reliance, and judging from past appearances, will give Carter the hardest battle he has ever had

The balance of the card is an excellent offering, and can be depended upon for some fast work It is is as follows Kid Alameda vs Kid Shields; Young Gomez vs Geo Kelley, Kid Early vs Frank Perry, Ed Leahy vs Ed Martin, Ed Du Franey vs Eddie Lovejoy.

O'BRIEN AGREES TO STOP TWO MEN IN 20 ROUNDS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28—Something doing with O'Brien at last

After all the Burns bunk and the Berger bunk, it is assured that P. Jay O'Brien will be seen in action soon, and before a Los Angeles audience.

The Berger match is practically off O'Brien has wired for his valet, the capable Mortimer Swanson, also his fighting togs and training junk.

O'Brien has agreed to stop two men in twenty rounds The men are Indian Joe, a 215-pound child of nature and Fred Cooley, a former sparring partner who has been making capital out of the story that he put O'Brien out one night in Toledo.

This preliminary match is made to give the people of Los Angeles a chance to pay their money and see O'Brien at work. Had O'Brien agreed to spar ten rounds with each man, the show would not be worth much as an attraction. Los Angeles does not care for sparring matches. But each ten-round go will be a fight, and O'Brien figures that he will be able to jab these men to sleep inside the limit

After this card O'Brien is to take on the winner of the Burns-Flynn match, which takes place on Tuesday, October 3. Sammy Berger signed articles with O'Brien in Chicago These articles called for a split of 75 and 25 and a clean break. Berger did not care to abide by this agreement and O'Brien has heard that Sammy tore the papers to bits Now Sam will have to come to O'Brien when he wants to talk business The Berger match, while not definitely declared off, is in the air and O'Brien has accepted two matches in Los Angeles, the first to take place about the middle of October and the second on Thanksgiving day.

Indian Joe is to have his troubles next Tuesday night He wants to butt his way to the head of the heavyweight division and will attempt to stop two men in one night—the Terrible Turk and Jim Tremble Joe may stop the Turk, but he will have to stop some if he trees the elusive James.

Cooley was in Chicago today asking for transportation, which was wired to him He is delighted with the opportunity of meeting his old-time employer and says he will certainly show O'Brien up.

Indian Joe says that no man in the business can stop him inside of ten rounds.

O'Brien has his work cut out for him and he will find he has no cinch, Big Jim Jeffries made a bloomer when he essayed to stop two men in one night, and though not a champion at that time, the fight delayed the Jeffries band wagon for a year or more.

What Berger Says About Whipping Jeffries

(By SAM BERGER).

There is a time in the career of every great man when he is just about to fall. Jim Corbett caught Sullivan at this time, Jeffries caught Fitz the same way, and I think that this is the time to get Jeffries. At the present time Jeffries would have to take off at least 100 pounds, and I think after doing that he would be weak and easy for me.

ANYONE CAN WHIP A LION IF THE LION'S SICK ENOUGH

The way some of our present fighters talk of becoming heavy-weight champion of the world is very amusing.

None of them is one-tenth as good as the great Jim Jeffries was, but they figure by disabling him in training that they might beat him.

Sam Berger is the latest with the dope He says that if Jeff ever trained again he would have to take off neary 100 pounds, and by so doing would weaken himself so that he would be a mark.

Oh! that's great!

Here's a man who wants to claim that there is no one in the world his equal with the gloves. A great champion, eh?

It would sound fine, Jim Jeffries vs. Sam Berger. Look good on a sign, eh?

It makes me think of the time Sandow was scheduled to wrestle with a lion in a cage at Central Park in Frisco The town was covered with flags, billboards, posters, etc.

Sandow vs. a lion!

Looked fine. They fell all over one another getting into the park!

Think! the strongest man in the world against a lion.

Great play, great crowd, great scheme.

When the park was crowded to the gates, standing room signs taken down, police were stationed at the gates to keep the mob outside quiet, and with the band playing Sandow came out, amid a tremendous cheer. The band played again, the drums beat and the crowd was almost crazy with joy.

Then they brought the poor lion out. He was muzzled, he had big leather pillows over his paws, a tight collar around his neck that choked him, and altogether looked like a prize package that was wrapped up for fear of breaking.

This was the ferocious lion that was expected to spring at Sandow when he entered the cage. The lion that would tear him apart, toss him from one side of the cage to the other and set the crowd mad.

No!

The lion crawled over to one side of the cage, looked around once or twice and sprawled out as though he was to be given a nice sun bath for the benefit of the great crowd.

Sandow carefully entered the big cage, had the doors locked behind him, stationed guards around the outside with big irons and guns and then the music and the cheering stopped.

Sandow stamped his foot, yelled at the lion and waved his arms in the air like a jumping-jack.

Nothing doing.

He went over closer and gently kicked the lion, then jumped back, ready for the scrap.

Nothing doing.

The lion turned his head around slowly and looked at him as much as to say "Cheese, Sandow, don't bother me."

Sandow, becoming braver, went over, lifted the lion up, rolled him over and tried to make him fight.

Nothing doing.

There was no more fight in the lion than there is in a biscuit.

Every time he moved it hurt him and he had no more chance of wrestling than a stuffed rabbit had.

Just so with Jeff.

Sure, take him out now, train him down to nothing. He's all in, and when you get him weak enough soak him. Great fight. Great man. New wonder.

If some of these present-day wonders would get in and fight instead of getting a cheap boost occasionally, it would be better for the game. If Berger, for instance, would go in and lick Al Kaufmann, Jack Johnson, Gus Ruhlin, Joe Jeanette and a few others, he might be thought a comet. This old bunk about signing to meet Jack O'Brien in 1908 is all right for a sailor boarding-house, but we've had that bull before.

How do we know that Berger can fight?

All the papers boosted him after his little six-round tete-a-tete with O'Brien. There were no knock-downs in that go. It wasn't such a ferocious affair. Because he outpointed O'Brien we don't have to see him fight Jeffries before we know whether he is good or not.

Terry McGovern went from the bottom right through the list to the top before he was a champion.

Battling Nelson fought from the dub class right through the bunch before he battled for the championship.

Bob Fitzsimmons battled hard and often before he was taken notice of.

Nix on this rough talk about getting Jeff.

As Mr. Sharkey says, "Do something."

BEAVERS TIE A CAN TO SEALS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28. — The Beavers carried off the victory in their second game at Idora Park with the Seals yesterday. It was a well earned one, too, and showed that class will tell. In the second round Cousin Parke's men chased one run across the plate on a single by Irwin, his steal of second and an error by Sweeney of Walthours' hit. This lone tally looked mighty big up to the seventh inning, then the men from the North became busy and evened up matters on a nice single by Tim Donahue and a smashing three-bagger by big Pete Lister. The tally that won the game was scored in the extra round and the deadly base on balls was the cause of it. Sweeney received the pass and went to second no a sacrifice by Jimmie McHale Mike Mitchell and his terrible club now came to the front and on his swat to right the short stop crossed the plate.

GIL MEAD TO REMAIN ANGEL'S ASSISTANT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—Gil Mead, former manager of the Los Angeles baseball team, is at Wheeler Hot Springs and will return to Los Angeles in a few days and turn over the business affairs of the club to the new management. It is expected that Mr. Mead will be retained as assistant manager of the local team. There is no truth in the report that Mead's accounts with the club were in confusion.

BURNS AND FLYNN ARE IN EXCELLENT CONDITION

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—With the Burns-Flynn battle but a few days away interest centers in the condition of the men. Burns' backers believe his aggressiveness, combined with his cleverness, will win, while the Flynn men point to the Colorado man's stamina and his ability to punch.

Last night Burns tipped the scales at 169¾ pounds after his day's work, while Flynn weighed some two pounds less.

Both show by their work that wind and limb are in perfect condition.

Burns went three rounds with Billy Woods at a hammer and tongs pace and followed it up with three fast periods with Jimmy Burns. Burns wound up his day's work with two rounds of shadow sparring and a couple of periods at the bags and with the rope.

In the morning he took a twelve-mile tramp with Mrs. Burns, who has been one of his best trainers in preparation for this fight, and followed it with a shower and a ten-mile horseback ride. Last night Burns showed none the worse for wear and brought his wife to town, where she will remain during the last week of his training.

Flynn went four rounds with his heavy sparring partners and three fast ones with Kid Dalton and Kid Webster

After the work with his sparring mates, Flynn went out on the road returned for a rubdown and shower He turned in before 9 o'clock, and will be out on the road shortly after sunrise this morning.

It has been settled that Burns will have Sam Berger in his corner.

Jeffries is back in town and there has been some talk of getting him to referee the contest. Jack O'Brien has been spoken of in the same connection but Burns would never hear to his being the third man in the ring.

O'Brien and De Witt Van Court will be in the Flynn corner and in this way every heavy-weight of importance, with the exception of Al Kaufmann, will be in town on the night of the fight.

BETTORS FAVOR HANLON; WINNER TO MEET HERMANN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28—During the whole of yesterday Eddie Hanlon was a strong favorite for tonight's fight at Dreamland pavilion. Before night odds of 10 to 8½ were offered against Dick Hyland, and the Hyland money came in very small lots. As a sporting man expressed it, most of the men who bet heavily on glove contests wanted to back Hanlon, while the majority of such as make $5 or $10 the limit of their investments fancied the other man.

As there are no central betting resorts in the city at present, the wagering on the contest was of a desultory character and it is believed that no great amount of money will be staked on the result

At the same time those who patronize pugilistic events are looking forward to an exciting bout. The argument is used that championship events often prove disappointing on account of the difference in the styles of the contestants or through one of the principals greatly outclassing the other, but in the Hyland-Hanlon affair the fighters are well paired in every respect They are sturdy boys and close fighters, and on all sides the match is spoken of as a promising one, so far as entertainment is concerned.

The winner of tonight's event will be asked to meet "Kid" Hermann of Chicago within the next few weeks The loser will be erased from the list of good attractions. The knowledge of what tomorrow will reveal in the matter of lost or added prestige will probably help to make tonight's clash spirited

Hanlon and Hyland will weigh in this evening at 7 o'clock at Al Coney's Kades baths

FAST TENNIS WINS CUP TWICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The handicap mixed doubles tennis tournament of the Golden Gate Junior Tennis club and the Ladies' Annex Tennis club, which was started last week, was concluded yesterday on the courts in Golden Gate Park. Harold Getz and Miss Golda Myer, owing half-fifteen to Miss Ida Mearns and R. Strachn, proved the winners in the round.

The handicap was a good one, and the match was not won until the final point had been made. Miss Mearns and Strachn had a chance at all times. In the second set they needed but one point on several occasions, but each time they failed to make it, and the match finally went to Miss Myer and Getz, 6-4, 5-6.

Never has such tennis been seen on the public courts as the women in this final match played yesterday. Miss Myer and Miss Mearns both drove and volleyed in remarkable fashion, and they were but little behind their clever partners in point of skill.

Strachn and Getz were both in good form. The greater part of the work fell on them and the fight for each point was well worth seeing. As a result of their victory, Miss Myer and Getz are now credited with two wins on the trophies. Another win will give them permanent possession of the cups.

Play will be resumed Sunday in the handicap singles tournament which was started last Sunday on the courts of the California Tennis club. Twenty of the original twenty-eight players still remain a the competition and some lively competition will result before the permanent ownership of the Judges' cup is determined.

ANGELS SEND THE GREEKS DOWN

LOS ANGELES, Sept 28.—Los Angeles 3, Oakland 1.

The Greeks took another downward boost yesterday afternoon in a game which would have been lifeless but for good old Bill Devereaux. Bill is growing old. He is no longer the untamed bull fighter of years ago. But there are times when he comes out of his trance for an inning or so and the bleacherites never find the game uninteresting when Bill is on the warpath. He got after "Bull" Perrine yesterday.

For two innings Bill fumed and fretted and roared, and at last Bull called the third baseman. The warning was enough and Bill subsided. The Greeks went away in the lead, getting one run in the initial inning. The Angels made it all even in the fourth and the game went into the strong box in the seventh, when two men crossed the plate as the result of a single, an error, an out and a long drive to left.

RAILWAY MAY BUILD TRACKS

Central Pacific Granted Rights Along Cypress Street After Sensational Hearing.

Several property-owners of the east side of Cypress street, between Fifth and Seventh streets, who own residences there, and about the same number of owners of warehouses and manufactories on the west side of the same street, were before the street railway committee of the city council last night when the application of the Central Pacific railway to construct and operate a spur track on Cypress street was considered. The former were there in the interest and protection of their homes, they stated. The latter were present for the sake of business. The railroad company wishes to have the spur track in order to accommodate the many warehouses and manufactories which contemplate locating on Cypress street. Attorney Phil Walsh represented the petitioner last night.

Tears were shed, threats were made and everybody talked at once. After a heated argument between the representatives of both sides, the committee recommended to the council that the railroad company be allowed to construct and operate a single track on the east sidewalk, between Fifth and Seventh streets, and a double track between Third and Fifth streets.

After telling the committee that her home, for which she worked for twenty years, would be wrecked by the advent of the freight railroad, Mrs. E. E. Clark broke down in tears. The railroad company wished to lay the track in the middle of the street, but the property owners of the east side of the street protested that tals would take their street room away and the committee, upon the motion of Councilman Baccus, decided to allow the railroad company to place its track along the west sidewalk, in front of the warehouses and manufactories.

The protestants, all of whom appeared at last night's meeting, are A. A. De Mars, William McIntosh, E. E. Clark, Thomas Farley, Caroline Von Glahn and E. S Newcum. The manufacturing concerns which desired to have the petition of the railroad company granted, are Joseph T. Hinch, Howard W. Bray, T. J. Todd, W. R. Scott, W. P. Fuller & Co., C H Hopkins, J. Tyrell and Robert Dalziel.

STATE SHOULD CONTROL TRUSTS, SAYS GARFIELD

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—James R. Garfield, commissioner of the bureau of corporations of the department of commerce and labor, Washington, in an address at the opening exercises of the school of commerce, accounts and finance of the University of New York, last night said:

"The problems of business are no longer single. They are no longer the problems of the individual. They are the problems of the corporations. A corporation has great power—greater than that of the individual, and hence of greater responsibility. It is a creature of the State and should be controlled by the State. The individual is lost in the corporation. This loss of personal responsibility has resulted in the loss of conscience. Corporations do what individuals cannot.

"Despite this, the corporation is a great agency for good. But it is worse than useless to inveigh against corporations. The man who seeks to overthrow must have something to offer as a substitute. To destroy all corporations would be bad. It is for educated men to find out what is evil in the corporation of today and to destroy it and to make the corporations better and stronger."

THE NOVELTY.

The Novelty this week is presenting an excellent vaudeville card and is attracting the attention of the public, as can be seen by the crowds that gather nightly in this popular place of amusement.

Herbet and Vance furnish about fifteen minutes of excellent amusement in the musical line, being accomplished on many instruments.

"Von," known as the human serpent, does a great act.

Dayton Sisters and Devoy furnish a few more minutes of amusement in singing and hard shoe dancing, and are very good.

Arthur Rigby, that funny minstrel monologuist, is still pleasing the audiences with his wit and humor.

Mason and Kelley, in the "Onion Trust," furnish about twenty more minutes of hilarious fun and amusement. Mason, in his impersonation of a German tourist, is true to life, and Lew Kelley as the pipe dreamer, or more commonly termed a dope fiend, does not overdo the character but renders it as you may see it in everyday life. They are assisted by Miss Sue Stillman.

Two reels of moving pictures do much to strengthen the bill.

Torture by Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman of Cushing, Me. "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria, and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by Osgood Brothers, druggists, Broadway, corner of Seventh, and Washington, corner of Twelfth. Price 50c.

WEAK, PALE, THIN

They Also Cured Her Daughter of Anaemia and Saved Her From Consumption.

Mrs. Josie Robbins, of 1121 Clay street, Decatur, Ills., is enthusiastic over the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. "In 1900, because of overwork," states Mrs. Robbins, "I was threatened with nervous prostration, complicated with heart trouble. I consulted my family physician who said it was heart trouble and he gave me three or four different kinds of medicine but I felt no benefit from them. I was very weak, pale, thin and troubled with headaches. My appetite failed so that I did not relish my food. I was unable to do my work because my limbs pained me so and my feet were swollen. I got numb and dizzy, my tongue seemed at times to be paralyzed so that I couldn't speak distinctly. My extremities, when in this numb state, felt as if some one was sticking needles into me all over their surface. Through my shoulders at times I had such pain that I couldn't sleep. Many times I awoke with a sensation of smothering.

"When I saw that the physician's remedies failed to benefit me I began to look for something that would. My sister, Mrs. McDaniel, of Decatur, recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me and I at once purchased some. I was greatly encouraged when I saw how they acted on my nervous condition and continued using them until cured. I am now able to attend to my duties without the slightest illness and have not consulted a physician since I began to use the pills.

"I also gave them to my daughter who had always been weak and who at this time seemed to lack vitality. Her cheeks were colorless and she was thin and spiritless. She had anaemia and we feared consumption, because every time she went out doors if it was at all cold or damp she would take cold and cough. But Dr Williams' Pink Pills brought color back to her cheeks and strength to her body. Today she is able to go out in all kinds of weather and is never affected by the cold."

When the nervous system is overstrained a healthful balance of the body is endangered. This lack of balance may bring on symptoms of functional and constitutional disorders baffling the wisest physician. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood they depend upon that vital fluid for their health. Dr Williams' Pink Pills make new blood and so restore the shattered nerves.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

BABE FALLS FROM WINDOW SIX STORIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Samuel Weiss, 2 years old, was killed early yesterday by falling from the sixth story window of the house, No. 70 Seventh street. The child was sleeping between his mother and father on a bed which was flush with the window sill of the airshaft.

The child awakened his parents by his restlessness and asked for a drink. The father, sleeping next to the window, got out of bed to get the drink for him. When he returned the child was missing. The body of the child was found in the shaft. He had landed upon his head, which was driven into his body up to his shoulders.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 28.—A tramp, who gave his name as Henry Thorp, and his home as Owensborough, Ky., was switched into the Kansas penitentiary this afternoon while he was asleep in a box car. He stepped off the car while in the main penitentiary yard and showed evidence of fright. He was detained for some time and his photograph and finger prints taken. He promised never to steal another car ride and begged so hard for liberty that the prison officials concluded not to carry the joke any farther.

On some days there are but three tides, the usual fourth tide occurring the following morning.

His wife insisted Mayhood be punished, saying he had repeatedly threatened her life by pointing a revolver at her and had abused her in many ways. Mrs. Mayhood cried as she told her wrongs to the court.

When Mayhood was arrested his wife said he had threatened in the street to shoot her.

WHEAT MARKET QUIET BUT FIRM

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The wheat market today opened quiet, but firm. Cables and unsettled weather in the Northwest tended to create bullish sentiment. PRICES OF STOCKS JUMP UPWARD

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Prices of stocks shot upward buoyantly on animated dealings at the opening under the influence of the announcement of the placing of $26,000,000 of government deposits in the national banks of various cities throughout the country. There were wide openings in Reading and the Harriman Pacifics and large initial transactions in other speculative favorites. Great Northern preferred advanced 4⅝, Reading, Canadian Pacific and Anaconda about 2, St. Paul 1½ and Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Delaware & Hudson, National Railroad of Mexico preferred, Amalgamated Copper, American Locomotive, Colorado Fuel, National Lead and American Cotton Oil 1 to 1¼. The whole list was up an average of a large fraction.

The market did not hold its opening advance long, the over-night rise being sufficiently attractive to encourage realizing. This resulted in Union Pacific losing more than its gains and in other stocks where the rise was not so pronounced there was also a relapse to yesterday's closing figures. Great Northern preferred reacted 2¼. The general effect on the list was slight when Reading was marked up again to 148. General selling was renewed again at 11 o'clock, following the announcement of call loans at 6 per cent. United States Rubber fell 1¼ and Distillers' Securities 1⅛, and Chicago Terminal fell 2.

FLEES IN RAIN FROM SANITARIUM

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 28.—Her mind unbalanced by a too close application to the study of Christian Science, Miss Alice McLaughlin, a young woman of this city, escaped from the Westport sanitarium yesterday, twenty-four hours after she had been taken there.

Through the drizzling rain, clad in light apparel and wearing thin shoes, she walked from Westport, a distance of eight miles, through the mud. She stopped at the home of Dr. Curtiss C. Hoyt, where she received attention and was later taken to her home, where she collapsed.

SAVES HUSBAND AND STOCK FROM FLAMES

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 28.—While John Decker, a farmer near here, was milking in his barn, lightning struck the building and set fire to the hay. Decker was knocked down and stunned.

Mrs. Decker, alarmed by the blaze at the barn, hurried from the house, seized her husband and dragged him out of the building. Then she released the cattle from stanchions and drove them into the yard.

The barn and several smaller buildings adjoining, with most of their contents, were totally destroyed.

THIS BRIDE USES PISTOL

Forced Aged Husband to Walk Backwards Upstairs—Both After a Divorce.

Marital troubles of Mr and Mrs. P J Land, who have been married for only about a year and who are now the principals in a sensational divorce suit before the superior courts, were aired in department one of the police court this morning Land, who is many years his wife's senior, was up for trial on a charge of battery, preferred by his spouse It was alleged that the aged contractor had struck his wife when she tried to interfere with his decision to have the household effects removed, after the couple had quarreled The testimony developed that during the trouble Mrs Land had drawn a revolver on her husband, made him shut the door as she desired and then forced him to walk upstairs backward

The Lands lived at 487 Sherman street, where the husband built a palatial home May 15 last, after the husband and wife had quarreled, Land ordered the household furniture to be removed When the drayman arrived Mrs Land claims that she went to the front door and pleaded with her husband to desist from his intentions Land was obdurate, however, and it was alleged that he struck Mrs Land when he forced her away from her position at the door He then opened the door, when his spouse drew a pistol and made him do all sorts of antics

Land was represented by Attorney Clarence Reed this morning and after the testimony of the prosecution had been given, a motion was made for dismissal and it was granted.

Mrs Land filed suit for divorce last June, alleging extreme cruelty Her husband has now filed cross-complaint, claiming that his wife is endeavoring to secure his money, he being a wealthy retired contractor. The case is to be heard before Superior Judge John Ellsworth

Land, in the event of the defense having to put on testimony, was to have had the following witnesses testify in his behalf J T Mogan, Dennis Holland, James Henneberry, J Farley, J Brandyne, A Thomblom and Miss Stasia Featherstone

HASSE JURY STILL OUT

Fails to Agree and Is Returned After Appearing Before Judge Waste.

When the jury in the Hasse case was brought into Judge Waste's court after having been out all night, Juror Emanuel Grant arose in his place and propounded a question to the court which showed that there had been warm times between the members while they were locked up for th night.

"If," said Grant, addressing the court, "a man says he knows that the defendant is guilty and then votes the other way, has he a right to do that?"

"The court," said Judge Waste, "has no right to interfere with the prerogative of the juror to try this case as he sees fit. The juror is here under oath to try the case honestly and that prerogative cannot be interfered with."

There evidently were strained relations between members of the body, but Juror Grant did not indicate to whom he referred.

Another novel feature of the case was the declaration of Juror Happ, as follows:

'I am positive that I could stay here from now to doomsday and that we could not agree on a verdict.'

This was said after Happ had informed the court that the festival of Yom Kippur, which is the day of atonement in the Jewish synagogue, would be ushered in at 5 o'clock this evening, and he would like to be absolved from attendance on the jury.

The court said he would remember the request.

"Is it possible for the jury to be polled in open court?' asked Mr. Hamilton

The court replied that such a thing could not be done unless the jury agreed on a verdict

At 10 50 o clock, the jury, at their request was given a number of books which have been used as evidence in the trial and was sent back to the room with the understanding that they would be called out again at 1.30 o clock this afternoon

When the jury made its appearance Judge Waste asked if they had agreed on a verdict

"We have not," said Juror La Blanc "We find it impossible to agree on a verdict, your Honor '

You are foreman of the jury, Mr. La Blanc?" asked Judge Waste.

"Yes, your Honor," was the reply

'Gentlemen" said the court, 'you have heard what your foreman has said Is that your belief? I will ask each of you?"

The court then asked each of the jurors whether he thought that a verdict could be reached with further deliberation

James Nolan, C. G. Mayburn, Thomas Clines, C A Augusto, M Happ and several others said they felt they could not agree Grant, Hamilton Potts, Hamb and others said they believed that a verdict might be reached.

"Very well, gentlemen, you may retire for further deliberations and the court will be in session all day."

The court then asked Hamilton how he was feeling, stating at the same time that the juror's physician had spoken to him last night telling him that Mr. Hamilton had not been well yesterday Mr Hamilton said that he was feeling well and was willing to devote more time to the case

Juror Potts asked if the jury could be allowed the use of the books of the county recorder, the auditor and other officials in which the record of goods supplied the county by Hasse was kept

The court allowed all the books requested to go to the jury and then that body retired

Shortly before noon today the jury from 1st room informed Bailiff Riley, who has them in charge, that it was impossible for them to agree on a verdict

Judge Waste was not in the court at the time and the bailiff had no authority to act in the premises

At 1 30 o'clock this afternoon Judge Waste reached the court room, but did no order the jury into court, as it was supposed he would do

He told THE TRIBUNE reporter that he would not call the jury into court before 2 o clock this afternoon.

It is now certain that there can be no agreement, but the impression obtains around the courts that a large majority of the men favor the conviction of the accused

MAKES PLEA FOR CHINESE

F. A. Campbell Says Police Should Direct Efforts to Thugs.

Editor TRIBUNE:—In your paper of the 27th inst. I read that a number of policemen under Captain Peterson at 10 o'clock p. m mashed in the doors of two houses in Chiantown and arrested seventy Chinamen for playing cards. On the other side of the same page I read that, according to your own report, one of the most daring, bold hold-ups in police annals in the city was taking place in front of our county Court House on Broadway at that very hour, and a stranger robbed of his money and clothes, and no clew could be obtained as to the identity of the hold-up man. It is a notorious fact that an average of two hold-ups takes place every night in our city, and no arrests. But half of the police force are in Chinatown breaking down doors and arresting inoffensive Chinamen for playing cards in houses they occupy as homes, and for which they are paying white people exorbitant rent. It is also a notorious fact that there are a large number of clubs the members of which are respectable gentlemen and ladies, who visit each others' houses for the purpose of playing cards and at each meeting all kinds of card games are played and large amounts of money change hands, but you never hear of the police breaking down the doors and rushing the patrol wagon full of these men and women to jail for gambling. What is the difference?

The Chinese have come here and are helping to make a city; they have heavily increased the deposits in our banks—in one case a Chinaman deposited one hundred and twenty thousand dollars—and all of the banks here have a Chinese department. They rent boxes in the safe deposit vaults. They have gone down in a portion of the city where a few months ago you could not give proprty away, and have made it as valuable as any in the city. Now what is the use of standing them up and persecuting them and driving them back to San Francisco?

Who cares if the Chinamen play cards in their own houses among themselves? But everybody cares whether it is safe to walk on Broadway after six o'clock in the evening. I think the police could cover themselves with more glory by letting the Chinamen alone and paying more attention to the hold-up men and petty thieves that operate on our principal streets nightly, while the police are attending to the morals of the Chinamen and are making a record by arresting seventy inoffensive men for playing cards in their own homes.
